Marking a Deserter.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Marine convicted of Desertion by any General, District, or Garrison Court-martial, or of Felony in any Court of Criminal Judicature in the United Kingdom, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Civil or Criminal Judicature in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would if committed therein be Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award; and in addition to any other Punishment it shall be lawful for a District or Garrison Court-martial to sentence a Marine convicted of Desertion to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, and Pension on Discharge, which might accrue from future Service; and it shall be lawful for any General or District or Garrison Court-martial assembled to try the Crime of Desertion, on the first and on every subsequent Conviction of Desertion, to direct, if it shall think fit, that, in addition to any other Punishment such Court may award, the Offender to be marked on the Left Side, Two Inches below the Arm-pit, with the Letter D., such Letter not to be less than an Inch long, and to be marked on the Skin with some Ink or Gunpowder, or other Preparation, so as to be visible and conspicuous, and not liable to be obliterated.

Marines sentenced to Imprisonment to undergo Sentence in such Prison as the Court, &c. shall appoint.

Discharge or Removal of Prisoners.

XX. And be it enacted, That any Marine sentenced by a Court-martial to Imprisonment with or without hard Labour, whether directed to be kept in solitary Confinement for the whole or any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment or not, shall undergo such Sentence in such public Prison or other Place as may in each Case be appointed by the Court, or the Commissioners for the Time being for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commanding Officer of the Division to which the Offender belongs or is attached, or the Officer commanding the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Officer commanding the Division, in the Case of a Prisoner undergoing the Sentence of a Divisional Court-martial, of his sole Authority, and in all other Cases with the Consent of the Officer commanding the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony, or of the Officer by whom the Sentence of the Court shall have been confirmed, as the Case may be, to give give at any Period of any such Imprisonment, and as often as Occasion may arise, an Order in Writing, directing that the Prisoner may be discharged, or be removed in Military Custody to some other public Prison or Place of Confinement, there to undergo the Remainder or any Part of his Sentence; and such Prisoner shall accordingly, on the Production of such Order, be discharged, or delivered up for Removal and be removed, as the Case may be: Provided also, that the Time of Removal from one public Prison or Place of Confinement to another shall be reckoned as Imprisonment under his Sentence.

Military Prisons established under Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion to be deemed public Prisons.

XXI. And be it enacted, That every Military Prison which shall be established under or by virtue of any Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters shall be deemed to be a public Prison within the Meaning of any Act now in force or hereafter to be in force for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces; and that any Officer or Marine convicted by a Court-martial may be sent, by Order of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to any such Military Prison, there to undergo such Punishment as may be awarded by the Sentence passed upon him, or until he be discharged or delivered up by an Order, as in the Case of a Discharge or Removal from any other Prison under this Act.

Term of Imprisonment of Offenders.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases the Term of Imprisonment under the Sentence, whether original or revised, of a Court-martial shall be reckoned as commencing on the Day on which the original Sentence and Proceedings of the Court-martial shall be signed by the President, and that every Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison or House of Correction in every Part of Her Majesty's Dominions shall receive into his Custody any Marine under Sentence of Imprisonment by a General or other Court-martial, upon Delivery to him of an Order in Writing on that Behalf from the Commanding Officer of the Division to which the Offender belongs or is attached, which Order shall specify the Period of Imprisonment which the Prisoner is to undergo; and such Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper shall keep such Marine in a proper Place of Confinement, with or without hard Labour, according to the Sentence of the Court, and during the Time specified in the said Order, or until he be discharged, or delivered up before the Expiration of that Time under an Order duly made for that Purpose; and whenever Marines are called out in aid of the Civil Power, or are stationed in Billets, or are on the Line of March, every Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison or Lock-up House shall receive into his Custody any Marine for a Period not exceeding Seven Days, upon his being furnished with a written Order to that Effect from the Officer commanding the Detachment to which the Marine belongs; and any Governor, Provost Marshal, Gaoler, or Keeper of any public Prison, Lock-up House, or other Place of Confinement who shall refuse to receive and to confine or to deliver up any Marine in the Manner herein-before prescribed shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Appeal.

Revision of Sentence.

XXV. And be it enacted, That no Person who shall have been acquitted or convicted of any Offence at any Court-martial shall be liable to be tried a Second Time for the same Offence, except in the Cases in which an Appeal from a Divisional to a General Court-martial against a Conviction is expressly given by any of the Articles of War to be made in pursuance of this Act; and that no Sentence of any Court-martial, signed by the President thereof, shall be liable to be revised more than once; and no Witness shall be examined nor shall any additional Evidence be received by the Court on such Revision.

Forfeiture of Pay.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no Marine who shall absent himself without Leave, or shall desert, shall be entitled to receive any Pay for the Time during which he shall have been absent from his Duty without due Authority; nor shall any Marine be entitled to Pay, or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, for any Period during which he shall be in Confinement under the Sentence of any Court, or shall be absent on any Charge cognizable by any Justice of the Peace or by any Court of Criminal Judicature, or by reason of any Arrest for Debt, or while he shall be in Confinement or absent as a Prisoner of War; but if any Marine shall absent himself without Leave for any Period not exceeding Five Days, and shall not account for such Absence to the Satisfaction of his Commanding Officer, it shall be lawful for such Officer, if he shall think fit, in addition to such other Punishment as he has Authority to inflict, to deprive any such Marine of his Pay for the Days on which he shall have been so absent, and thereupon such Pay shall be forfeited; in which Case such Marine shall not be liable to be afterwards tried by a Court-martial for such Absence: Provided always, that any Marine so deprived of his Pay shall have a Right to insist on being tried by a Court-martial for his Offence instead of submitting to such Forfeiture, and if acquitted of the Offence for which he shall have been in Confinement shall, upon his Return to his Duty, be allowed to receive the Arrears of Pay, and to reckon Service for the Time he shall have been so absent; and when a Marine shall rejoin Her Majesty's Service upon his Release from Confinement as a Prisoner of War due Inquiry shall be made by a Court-martial into the Circumstances of his Case, and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Court that such Marine became a Prisoner without wilful Neglect or Fault on his Part, and that he hath not served with or in any Manner aided the Enemy, and that he hath returned as soon as he possibly could to Her Majesty's Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to the said Commissioners to receive the Whole or any Proportion of his Pay, and to reckon Service for the Time he shall have been so absent; and provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to order or withhold the Payment of the Pay of any Officer or Marine for the Period during which he shall have been absent from any of the Causes aforesaid.

Apprehension of Deserters.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Constable of any Place where any Person reasonably suspected to be a Deserter shall be found, or of any adjoining Place, and if no such Constable can be immediately met with to secure him, then for any Officer, Marine, or other Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and cause him to be brought brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the same or any adjoining County, who shall examine such suspected Person; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear that any Person brought before him is a Marine unlawfully absent from his Duty, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the nearest or most convenient public Prison in the same or any next adjoining County, and shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed for that Purpose in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, with a Description of the Person of such Deserter, and the Name of the Division to which he shall belong, and also certifying the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended; and if the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, shall be satisfied such last-mentioned Persons are justly entitled to a Reward for such Apprehension, the said Secretary shall in return transmit to such Justice an Order upon the proper Department for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings as a Reward to the Persons so certified to be entitled thereto; which Reward shall be paid and charged against the Pay and Subsistence of any such Deserter, and stopped out of the same; or if such Deserter shall be apprehended by any Soldier or Party of Soldiers of his own or any other Corps, or shall be apprehended in the Vicinity of the Head Quarters of the Corps to which he shall belong, then such Justice shall deliver such Deserter to the Party of his Corps, or may order him to be taken to the Head Quarters of the Corps, instead of committing him to Prison; and for every such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice may be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler or other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall, immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody, notify the Fact to the said Secretary, and transmit also to the said Secretary a Copy of the Commitment.

Fraudulent Confession of Desertion.

XXX. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily deliver himself up as a Deserter from Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for any Offence, shall, in the Presence of the Justice, confess himself to be a Deserter as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted and to be a Marine, and shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Marine or not; and in case such Person shall not be a Deserter from the Royal Marine Forces, or shall have been discharged therefrom or from any other Corps as unserviceable or by Sentence of Court-martial, or shall be incapable of Service, he shall on Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace be adjudged to be punished, if in England, as a Rogue and Vagabond, and if in Scotland or Ireland by Commitment to some Prison or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Three Months, or shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith; and such Person, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and the Confession and receiving Subsistence as a Marine by such Person shall be Evidence of the false Pretence, or of the Falsehood, Fraud, and Imposition, as the Case may be, and of the obtaining Money to the Amount of the Value of such Subsistence, and the Value of such Subsistence so obtained may be charged in the Indictment as so much Money received by such Person; and in case such Person shall have been previously convicted of the like Offence, or shall have been summarily convicted and punished in England as a Rogue and Vagabond, or in Scotland or Ireland by Commitment, for making a fraudulent Confession of Desertion, such former Conviction may be alleged in the Indictment, and may be proved upon the Trial of such Person; and in such Indictment for a Second Offence it shall be sufficient to state that the Offender was at a certain Time and Place convicted of obtaining Money under false Pretences as a Deserter, for making a fraudulent Confession of Desertion, without otherwise describing the said Offence; and a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only (omitting the formal Part) of the Indictment and Conviction of the former Offence purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Record of the Court where the Offender was first convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk, or by the Clerk of the convicting Magistrates, shall, upon Proof of the Identity of the Person of the Offender, be sufficient Evidence of the First Conviction, without Proof of the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same; and if the Person so confessing himself to be a Deserter shall be serving at the Time in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with by all Justices and Gaolers as a Deserter.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 29.

9 G. 4. c. 55.

Notice of Expiration of Imprisonment.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That every Gaoler having Notice, or who shall have reason to believe or to know, that any Person in his Custody is a Marine, liable to serve Her Majesty, shall, on receiving him into Custody, and also previous to the Expiration of the Period of the Imprisonment of such Marine, give One Month's Notice, or if there shall not be sufficient Time for a Month's Notice, then the longest practicable Notice thereof, to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Offences connected with Enlistment.

XL. And be it enacted, That if any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before a Justice, or shall absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Four Days as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Private in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Four Days as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted; provided that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Fact of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he shall be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall enlist into Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmity concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and mentioned therein, may be transferred into a Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, may allow in that Behalf instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, any Act or any Rules and Regulations to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have wilfully concealed his having been a Marine or Soldier and discharged, or to have concealed his having been discharged on any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any Infirmity, or designedly made any false Representation upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law in force may be inflicted on Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned with hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall thereby obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith; and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith; and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and the Production of such Certificate, and Proof of the Handwriting of the Justice giving such Certificate, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Party having represented the several Particulars contained in the Oath sworn by him, and specified in the Certificate of the Justice at the Time of his having been attested; and that Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Navy or Marines, or Ordnance, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man who having been enrolled to serve in the Militia, and who at the Time of offering to enlist into the Marines shall deny that he is a Militia Man, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, either upon the Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, or upon the Production of the Attestation and the before-mentioned Acknowledgment of such Person, certified by the Secretary of the Admiralty, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable; and shall from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, belong as a Soldier to the Division of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces into which he has so enlisted: Provided also, that every such Person shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces in which he has so enlisted during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and be liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Marines if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve therein.

[19th July 1844.]

'WHEREAS the Constitution of Boards of Guardians for Parishes and Unions of Parishes for the Administration of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in England, together with the Appointment of Treasurers holding Funds contributed by such Parishes, affords great Facility for the Collection of County Rates, Hundred Rates, Police Rates, and other like Rates authorized to be levied in Counties or Parts of Counties; and it is expedient to relieve High Constables from the Duties of collecting and paying to the County Treasurer the said Rates, and from attending at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace of their several Counties in certain Cases, and from the Performance of certain other Duties at present by Law imposed on them:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Justices of the Peace shall send Precepts directly to Guardians of Unions for the Payment of County Rates, &c.

this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of October in this present Year, so soon as any Vacancy occurs in the Office of High Constable of any Hundred, by the Expiration of his Appointment, or otherwise, then, as often as the Justices of the Peace within the respective Limits of their Commissions in England have made a County Rate or a Police Rate, or any other Rate which may by Law be raised in like Manner as County Rates, or any Two or more such Rates, such Justices assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment thereof, shall order Precepts in the Form shown in the Schedule annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as may be, to be issued to the Guardians of every Union of Parishes, of which Union any Parish is situate within such Limits, stating the Sum or Sums assessed and charged for each such Rate on each Parish in the Union, the whole of which Parish is situate within such Limits, and to the Guardians of every single Parish situate within such Limits, stating the Sum or Sums assessed and charged on such Parish for each such Rate, and requiring the Guardians of such Union or Parish respectively, within such Time as may be limited in such Precepts, to cause the aggregate of the said several Sums so stated to be paid by them, out of the Monies held by them on behalf of each such Parish, to the Treasurer of the County or Place for which such Justices act, and may cause such Precepts to be sent by Post, or otherwise, to such Guardians; and such Precepts shall have force in every such Union so far as concerns such Parishes as are within the Limits of the Commission of the said Justices, notwithstanding that the Place of meeting of such Guardians may not be situated within such Limits, and without being endorsed with the Signature of any Justice of the Peace having ordinary Jurisdiction in the Place of meeting of the Guardians; and such Guardians shall raise the Monies required by such Precepts to be paid in like Manner as the Money required by such Guardians for the Relief of the Poor, and shall pay such Monies at the Time limited and in the Manner prescribed by such Precepts; and if the Treasurer of such Guardians, or any Person on his or their Behalf, tender to the Treasurer of the County or Place for which such Justices act the aggregate of the said several Sums, or if he so tender the whole Sum assessed on any such Parish or Parishes in respect of any such Rate or Rates, together with a Copy of such Precept in which are specified the Parish or Parishes, and the Rate or Rates, in respect of which the same is so tendered, the Treasurer of the County shall receive the Sum so tendered, notwithstanding that the Sums required to be paid on behalf of other of such Parishes or of other of such Rates be not then tendered, and shall give a Receipt for the Sum or Sums received by him accordingly, but he shall not receive any Sum on behalf of any such Parish less than the whole of the Sum assessed and charged thereon in respect of one such Rate; and the Receipt of the Treasurer of such County or Place shall be a good Discharge for the Payment of the Sums specified in any such Precept or of any of them.

Interpretation of "Property" in Burghs.

XXIX. Further Continuance of 2 & 3 Vict. c. 42.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the first-recited Act as amended by this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Assessment for raising 20,000*l.* not to exceed 1,200*l.* in any One Year.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Assessment not exceeding Two thousand Pounds in any one Year, for the Purpose of raising the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds mentioned in the said first-recited Act to be paid by the different Counties of Scotland and Burghs situated therein, shall not, from and after the Determination of the Assessment made for the current Year, exceed the Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds in any succeeding Year during the Continuance of the said Act as extended by this Act.

This Act to be in force for same Time and to be construed with former Act.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence on the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, except in so far as herein otherwise directed, and shall continue in force for the Period during which the first-recited Act as amended by this Act shall be in force, and shall be taken to be Part thereof, and be construed in like Manner therewith, and shall be held to alter or repeal the same in so far as the same is at variance or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that all Assessments which shall have been made, or which, according to the Provisions of the said recited Act should have been made, before the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, shall be levied and applied in the Manner and for the Purposes by the said Act directed.

'WHEREAS certain Acts for making, amending, and repairing the Turnpike Roads in Ireland were, 'by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the 'Reign of Her present Majesty, amended and continued for a Time therein limited: And whereas under 'the Provisions of Two Acts passed respectively in the Sessions of Parliament holden in the Fifth and in 'the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, the said Acts were further continued for a Time 'therein limited: And whereas, under the Provisions of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, the 'said Acts are further continued, and will remain in force until the Thirty-first Day of July in the 'present Year, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament: And 'whereas it is expedient that the several Acts for making, amending, or repairing Turnpike Roads in 'Ireland should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Act for making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road or Roads in Ireland (except as herein-after mentioned), which will expire on the said Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or at or before the End of the present or next ensuing Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby continued, as amended by the said recited Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament.

An Act to secure the Terms on which Grants are made by Her Majesty out of the Parliamentary Grant for the Education of the Poor; and to explain the Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, for the Conveyance of Sites for Schools. [19th July 1844.]

'WHEREAS during several Years last past divers Sums of Money have been granted by Parliament 'to Her Majesty, to be applied for the Purpose of promoting the Education of the Poor in Great 'Britain, and similar Grants may hereafter be made: And whereas Her Majesty hath appointed a Com-'mittee of Her Council to receive Applications for Assistance from such Grants, and to report thereon, 'and to advise Her as to the Terms and Conditions upon which such Assistance shall be granted, and many 'such Reports have been made, and approved of by Her Majesty, and the Terms and Conditions having 'been assented to by the Applicants, Grants have been made out of the said Fund: And whereas in some 'Cases, by reason of the Deeds of Endowment of Schools in respect of which such Applications have been 'received having been executed before the Grant has been made, such Terms and Conditions have not and 'cannot be made permanently binding on the Estate; but the Parties promoting the said Schools have 'entered into personal Obligations or Assurances for the due Performance of such Terms and Conditions, 'though deriving no beneficial Interest from the charitable Institution which they have established; and it 'is desirable to provide permanent Security to Her Majesty and Her Succesors for the due Fulfilment of 'the Terms and Conditions, and to relieve the Parties from the personal Liabilities so entered into for the 'Purpose aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Grant hath been made or shall hereafter be made out of any Sums of Money heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted by Parliament for the Purposes of Education in Great Britain, under the Advice of any Committee of the Council on Education for the Time being, upon Terms and Conditions to provide for the Inspection of the School by an Inspector appointed or to be appointed by Her Majesty and Her Successors, which shall not be inserted in the Conveyance of the Site of the School, or in the Deed declaring the Trusts thereof, and such Grant shall be made in aid of the Purchase of the Site, or of the Erection, Enlargement, or Repair of the School, or of the Residence of the Master or Mistress thereof, or of the furnishing of the School, such Terms and Conditions shall be binding and obligatory upon the Trustees or Managers of the said School or other the

The Terms and Conditions upon which Parliamentary Aid has been given towards the building of Schools secured upon the Site

Premises for the Time being, in like Manner and to the like Effect as though they had been inserted in the Conveyance of the Site of the said School, or in the Declaration of the Trusts thereof; and henceforth all personal Obligations entered into for the Purpose of securing the Fulfilment of such Terms and Conditions shall, so far as they relate thereto, but no further, be null and void: Provided nevertheless, that such Terms and Conditions shall have been or shall be set forth in some Document in Writing, signed by the Trustees of the said School or the major Part of them, or by the Party or Parties conveying the Site, in the Case where there shall have been a voluntary Gift thereof.

The Terms upon which Aid shall be granted to Trustees of ancient endowed Schools.

II. 'And whereas there are many Endowments for the Purpose of Education of the Poor in Great Britain of ancient Date, the Schools whereon have become dilapidated, and, the Funds of such Endowment being insufficient for the Restoration thereof, Application is made by the Trustees, or by the Persons acting in the Discharge of the Trusts thereof, for Aid out of the said Parliamentary Grant, but the same hath been declined, because such Applicants could not impose upon their lawful Successors in the said Trust the Conditions which the said Committee would have advised Her Majesty to require to secure the due Inspection of such Schools, and it is expedient to enable them to do so;' be it therefore enacted, That where the major Part of the Trustees of any endowed School for the Education of the Poor duly appointed under the Terms of the Deed of Endowment, or, when such Deed cannot be found or cannot be acted upon, of the Persons who shall be in the Possession of the Endowment, and shall be acting in the Execution of the Trusts or the reputed Trusts thereof, shall, and in Cases where there shall be a Visitor of such School with the Consent of such Visitor in Writing, apply for Aid out of such Parliamentary Grant to enable them to rebuild, repair, or enlarge the School belonging to such Endowment, or the Residence of the Master or Mistress thereof, or to furnish such School, and shall in Writing assent to the said School being open to Inspection on behalf of Her Majesty and Her Successors, if the said Committee shall deem fit to advise that any such Grant shall be made, it shall immediately after the making of such Grant, and thenceforth from Time to Time, be lawful for any Inspector of Schools appointed by Her Majesty and Her Successors, in conformity with the Terms contained in the Writing testifying such Consent as aforesaid, to enter the said School at all reasonable Hours in the Day for the Purpose of inspecting and examining the State and Condition of the School and the Scholars thereat, and of making such Report thereon, as he shall deem fit.

Death of Donor within Twelve Calendar Months not to avoid Grant. 4 & 5 Vict. c. 38.

III. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to afford further Facilities for the Conveyance and Endowment of Sites for Schools, it is enacted, that any Person, being seised in Fee Simple, Fee Tail, or for Life of and in any Manor, or Lands of Freehold, Copyhold, or Customary Tenure, may grant, convey, or enfranchise, and subject to the Provisions therein mentioned, any Quantity not exceeding One Acre of Land as a Site for a School or otherwise, as therein likewise specified; and it is desirable to prevent any such Grant, being of so limited an Interest, from being defeated by the Death of the Grantor;' be it enacted, That where any Deed shall have been or shall be executed under the Powers and for the Purposes contained in the said Act, without any valuable Consideration, the same shall be and continue valid if otherwise lawful, although the Donor or Grantor shall die within Twelve Calendar Months from the Execution thereof.

Site may be granted to the Minister and Churchwardens.

IV. 'And whereas it was provided by the said Act that Grants of Land or Buildings, or any Interest therein, for the Purposes of the Education of poor Persons, might be made to the Minister of any Parish, being a Corporation, and the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens and Overseers of the Poor and their Successors, and it is sometimes found inexpedient or impracticable to introduce the Overseers as Parties to the legal Estate;' be it therefore enacted, That such Grants may be made to the Minister and Churchwardens of any Parish, such Minister being the Rector, Vicar, or Perpetual Curate thereof, whether endowed or not, to hold to them and their Successors, subject to the Provisions contained in the Deed of Conveyance thereof for the Management, Direction, and Inspection of the School and Premises.

Rector, &c., may grant to Minister and Churchwardens, or to Minister, Churchwardens, and Overseers.

V. And be it enacted, That if the Rector, Vicar, or Perpetual Curate of any Parish shall be desirous of making a Grant of any Land for the Purposes and under the Powers of the said Act, being Part of the Glebe or other Possessions of his Benefice, and shall, with the Consent of the Patron of the said Benefice, and of the Bishop of the Diocese within which the same shall be situated, grant the same to the Minister and Church or Chapel Wardens, or to the Minister, Church or Chapel Wardens, and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish, such Grant shall be valid, and shall thenceforth enure for the Purposes of the Trust set forth therein, if otherwise lawful, notwithstanding such Minister is the Party making the Grant.

Act may be altered, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be altered by any other Act in this Session of Parliament.

Recovery of Amounts due to Loan Societies on Notes or Securities.

II. 'And whereas by the said recited Act it was provided, that nothing therein contained should 'extend or be construed or taken to authorize any Interference on the Part of the said Loan Fund Board, 'or the Secretary or Officers thereof, in the Affairs of the London Charitable Association, commonly 'called "The Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution," or of any Trustees or Agents thereof, or of 'any Institution or Society in Ireland which was or should be established in connection with the said 'Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution; and various Provisions were in the said Act contained in 'reference to the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution: And whereas subsequently to the 'passing of the said Act the said Institution has been incorporated by Her Majesty's Letters Patent, 'under the Name of "The Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution," and it may be doubted whether 'the Provisions in the said Act contained apply to the said incorporated Society;' be it enacted, That all and singular the Enactments, Provisions, Stipulations, and Exemptions in the said recited Act contained in reference to the said Charitable Association, and the Secretary, Trustees, Agents, or Officers thereof, and the Institutions or Societies of Persons instituted or associated together in Ireland by or in connection therewith, and the Monies, Implements, Goods, and Effects of the said Association, shall extend and be applicable to the said Corporation of the Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, and the Secretary, Trustees, Agents, and Officers thereof, and the Institutions or Societies of Persons which now are or hereafter may be instituted or associated together in Ireland by or in connection therewith, and the Monies, Implements, Goods, and Effects of the said Corporation, and that as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were here fully and at length repeated, and the Name of the said incorporated Society were substituted for the Name of the said Charitable Association; Provided always, that in lieu of the Lists, Descriptions, Specifications, Notices, and Certificates, required by the said Act to be under the Hand and Seal of the Chairman, and countersigned by the Secretary or Manager of the said Charitable Association, it shall be sufficient that such Lists, Descriptions, Specifications, Notices, and Certificates shall be sealed with the Corporate Seal of the said incorporated Society; and all such Lists, Descriptions, Specifications, Notices, and Certificates, so sealed with such Corporate Seal, shall have the same Force and Effect in all respects as is by the said Act given to Lists, Descriptions, Specifications, Notices, and Certificates under the Hand and Seal of the Chairman, and countersigned by the Secretary or Manager of the said Charitable Association; and such Certificate, so sealed with the said Corporate Seal, shall be Evidence, before all Judges and Justices, and in all Courts, of the Facts therein certified, without further Proof thereof, and it shall not be necessary to prove the sealing of such Certificates: Provided also, that in all Cases where Lists, Descriptions, or Specifications shall have been sent by the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, to the Secretary of the Loan Fund Board in Dublin, of any Trustees or Agents of the said Society, authorized to act in relation to the Affairs of the said Institution in Ireland, or of any Loan Societies in connection therewith, it shall not be necessary for the said incorporated Society to send any further or additional Lists, Descriptions, or Specifications thereof.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to facilitate the disjoining or dividing of extensive or populous Parishes, and the erecting of new Parishes, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland. [19th July 1844.]

'WHEREAS by certain Acts of the Parliament of Scotland Provision is made for disjoining large 'Parishes and building and erecting new Churches; and in particular by an Act passed in the 'Parliament of Scotland in the Year One thousand seven hundred and seven, intituled Act anent Plan- 1707, c. 9.
'tation of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, the Lords of Council and Session are empowered, authorized, 'and appointed to judge, cognosce, and determine in all Affairs and Causes whatsoever which by the 'Laws and Acts of Parliament of the Kingdom of Scotland were formerly referred to and did pertain and 'belong to the Jurisdiction and Cognizance of the Commissioners formerly appointed for the Plantation 'of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, as fully and freely in all respects as the said Lords do or may do in 'other civil Causes; and particularly, inter alia, "to disjoin too large Paroches, to erect and build new 'Churches, to annex and dismember Churches, as they shall think fit, conform to the Rules laid down 'and Powers granted by the Nineteenth Act of the Parliament One thousand six hundred and thirty-'three, the Twenty-third and Thirtieth Acts of the Parliament One thousand six hundred and ninety, 'and the Twenty-fourth Act of the Parliament One thousand six hundred and ninety-three, in so far as 'the same stand unrepealed; the transporting of Kirks, disjoining of too large Paroches, or erecting and 'building of new Kirks, being always with the Consent of the Heritors of Three Parts of Four at least 'of the Valuation of the Paroch whereof the Kirk is craved to be transported, or the Paroch to be 'disjoined and new Kirks to be erected and built:" And whereas it is expedient to afford Facilities and 'to make further Provision for the disjoining or dividing of extensive and populous Parishes:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Act as requires the Consent of the Heritors of Three Parts of Four at least of the Valuation of the Parish whereof the Kirk is craved to be transported, or the Parish to be disjoined and new Kirks to be erected and built, shall be repealed; and that the Consent of the Heritors of a major Part of the Valuation of any Parish shall be necessary and sufficient in all Cases in which the Consent of the Heritors of Three Parts of Four of the Valuation of such Parish was required by the said recited Act, except where otherwise herein-after expressly provided.

Consent of Majority to be sufficient.

II. And be it enacted and declared, That a Parish may be deemed and held to be too large, and may, as such, be disjoined or divided under the Provisions of the said recited Act as altered and amended by this Act, by reason of the Largeness of the Population of such Parish, although the superficial Measurement thereof may not be too large for one Parish.

Largeness of the Population to be a Reason for Division of Parish.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall not be a valid Objection to the Competency of any Process which shall be brought for disjoining or dividing a Parish or Parishes and erecting a new Kirk or Kirks, under the Provisions of the said recited Act as altered and amended by this Act, that the Consent of the Heritors of a major Part of the Valuation of the Parish to be disjoined or divided had not been given previous to such Process having been brought into Court; and it shall be lawful for the Lords of Council and Session before whom any such Process shall have been brought to appoint special Intimation thereof to be made, in such Form and Manner as the said Lords of Council and Session shall direct, to such of the Heritors of the Valuation of the Parish as shall not have already either given their Consent or judicially stated their Dissent, and to sist Proceedings in such Process for a definite Time for the Purpose of allowing such Heritors to state judicially their Consent or their Dissent; and such of them as shall not within a Time to be fixed by the said Lords of Council and Session, and to be specified in such Intimation as aforesaid, judicially state their Dissent, shall, on computing the statutory Proportion of Consents, be reckoned as consenting Heritors.

Non-consent of Heritors not to be deemed valid Objection to Process for disjoining Parishes.

IV. And be it enacted, That if, in any Process for disjoining or dividing a Parish, it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Lords of Council and Session that there is already built or erected and in good Repair a Church or Place of Worship suitable for the Church of the new Parish proposed to be erected, and capable of being lawfully appropriated to that Purpose, whereby the Expence of erecting a new or additional Church will not be incurred by the Heritors, and that the Titulars or others having Right to the Teinds out of which is to be paid not less than Three Fourths of the additional Stipend or Stipends to be modified by reason of such Disjunction or Division have consented thereto, or have stated no Objection thereto, after due Intimation by Direction of the Lords of Council and Session to them given, it shall be lawful and competent for the said Lords of Council and Session to allow such Process to proceed, and to give Judgment and Decree therein, if, upon Consideration of the whole Case, it shall appear to them that there are good and sufficient Reasons for so doing, although the Heritors of a major Part of the Valuation of the Parish to be disjoined or divided may not have consented.

Where Proof is given that a sufficient Church Accommodation exists in the new Parish, Lords of Council may allow Process to proceed.

V. And be it enacted, That when any Parish or Parishes shall have been disjoined or divided, and a new Parish erected, under the Provisions of the said recited Act as altered and amended by this Act, the Patronage of such new Parish shall belong to the Patron of the original Parish from which the same has been disjoined or divided; or if the new Parish has been disjoined or divided from more than one Parish having different Patrons, the Patronage of such new Parish shall belong to the Patrons of the Parishes from which the same has been disjoined or divided, and shall be exercised by them, either jointly or in a certain Order of Rotation as may have been agreed upon by them, or failing of such Agreement, then their respective Interests in the Right of Patronage, and the Manner of exercising the same, same, shall be fixed by the Lords of Council and Session, and in either Case shall be set forth in a Judgment to be pronounced by the said Lords of Council and Session in the Process for erecting such new Parish; Provided always, that such Patron or Patrons of the original Parish or Parishes from which the new Parish has been disjoined or divided shall undertake to bear the Burden of not less than One Half of the Stipend to be provided to the Minister of such new Parish: Provided also, that no Patron of any of the original Parishes, who shall not bear the Burden of One Fourth Part of the Stipend of the Minister of the new Parish, shall have any Right or Interest in the Patronage of such new Parish by virtue of his Right of Patronage in such original Parish; and in every Case in which the Patron or Patrons of the original Parish or Parishes shall not bear the Burden of not less than One Half of the Stipend to be provided to the Minister of the new Parish, the Patronage of such new Parish, and the Right of Presentation to the Kirk thereof, shall belong to the Person if there be only One such Person, or to the Persons alternately if there are more than One and not more than Three such Persons, who shall bear the Burden of the whole Stipend provided for the Minister of such new Parish at the Erection thereof, and to the Heirs of such Person or Persons; and if the Persons who bear the Burden of such Stipend shall exceed Three in Number, then the Patronage of such new Parish, and the Right of Presentation to the Kirk thereof, shall be vested in and be exercised by Three Trustees, or, in case of Difference of Opinion, by the Majority of Three Trustees, who shall be chosen for their respective Lives in manner following; (that is to say,) the Three Trustees first chosen shall be elected by a Majority of Votes at a Meeting of the Heritors of such new Parish, and of the Persons who are liable in payment of Stipend to the Minister thereof, or who have contributed the Sum of Five Pounds towards the Fund out of which any Part of the Stipend is provided, or towards the Expence of providing the Church for such new Parish; and upon the Death, Disability, or Resignation of any of the Trustees so chosen, another Trustee in his Place shall be elected for Life by the Heritors and Kirk Session of the Parish; and as often as any Vacancy shall happen by the Death, Disability, or Resignation of any Trustee, his Place shall be supplied in like manner by another Trustee, to be elected for Life by the Heritors and Kirk Session of the Parish: Provided always, that no Person shall be qualified to hold the Office of Trustee who is not a Member of the Church of Scotland in full Communion therewith.

In certain Cases a Parish, though divided, may remain as one Parish for Purposes of Poor.

VI. 'And whereas in some large and populous Parishes which it may be considered necessary or 'proper to divide into Two or more Parishes there are a Number of poor Persons, the greater Portion of 'whom reside in or near the same Locality, such Locality being sometimes the least wealthy, whereby 'the particular territorial Division of such large and populous Parish, which would be most expedient 'and advantageous in other respects, would operate injuriously or unjustly if each of the new Parishes 'into which it may be divided was left to provide from its own Resources for that Portion of the Poor 'of the original Parish resident within the Territory of such new Parish;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lords of Council and Session, if they see Cause so to do in any Judgment to be by them pronounced dividing or disjoining a Parish, to declare and provide, that, notwithstanding such Division or Disjunction, the original Parish and the several new or separate Parishes thereby erected within the Bounds thereof shall, in so far as regards the Support and Management of the Poor, and all Matters and Questions connected therewith, remain and be regarded as one Parish; and in every such Case there shall be one Kirk Session, consisting of the Members of the Kirk Sessions of all the Parishes within the Bounds of the original Parish, in all Matters and Questions relating to the Support and Management of the Poor; and the Session Clerk of the original Parish shall, during his Incumbency, act as Clerk of the said Kirk Session in all such Matters and Questions.

Division of a Parish not to affect Law as to Roads.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Division of any Parish shall affect the Law and Practice already existing in such Parish as to the Management of Roads, or as to the levying or applying the Statute Labour or Conversion of Statute Labour within the Bounds of the original Parish so divided, but the same shall continue to be managed, levied, and applied as if no such Division had taken place, unless it shall be considered expedient by the County or District Trustees for the Conversion of the Statute Labour to make a new Arrangement for allocating the Management of the Roads and Statute Labour, or Conversion Money in reference to the Alteration of Circumstances consequent on such Division of the Parish as aforesaid.

Where a Church is built and endowed, a District may be attached thereto.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, at his, her, or their Expence, have built or shall have acquired, or shall have undertaken to build or acquire, a Church, and shall have endowed or shall have undertaken to endow the same, it shall be competent for the Lords of Council and Session, acting in their Capacity aforesaid of Commissioners for the Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, and they are hereby empowered and authorized, on the Application of such Person, or of such Persons where they do not exceed Five in Number, or of Two Thirds or any Ten of such Persons where they do exceed Five in Number, and without any Concurrence of Heritors, to inquire into the Circumstances, and to erect such Church into a Parish Church in connexion with the Church of Scotland, and to mark out and designate a District to be attached thereto quoad sacra, and to disjoin such District quoad sacra from the Parish or Parishes to which the same, or any Part thereof, may have belonged or been attached, and to erect such District into a Parish quoad sacra in connexion with the Church of Scotland; and it shall and may be lawful for the Minister and Elders of such Parish to have and enjoy the Status and all the Powers, Rights, and Privileges of a Parish Minister and Elders of the Church of Scotland: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to deprive any Party who has a legal Interest in the Fabric of any Place of Worship of any Right which by Law belongs to such Party to prevent such Place of Worship from being used or appropriated for a Place of Worship in connexion with the Church of Scotland: Provided also, that due Intimation of every such Application as aforesaid shall shall be made to all Parties having Interest, that they may have an Opportunity of appearing and being heard; which Intimation may be made by Notice in the Edinburgh Gazette, or by Advertisement in One or more Edinburgh Newspapers of general Circulation, or in any other Form or Manner that may be directed by the Lords of Council and Session in any Act or Acts of Sederunt, or any Order to be made by them for that Purpose: And provided also, that the Titles to the said Church shall be taken and conceived so as that the said Church shall be inalienably secured as the Church of the said new Parish in connexion with the Church of Scotland, and that due Provision shall be made for the future Maintenance of the Fabric of the said Church; and that the Endowment for the Minister of the said new Parish shall be not less than a Stipend of One hundred Pounds per Annum, or Seven Chalders of Oatmeal, to be calculated at the highest Fiars of the County, exclusive of the Sum necessary for Communion Elements, with a suitable Dwelling House or Manse and Offices and Appurtenances, or a Stipend of not less than One hundred and twenty Pounds, or Eight and a Quarter Chalders of Oatmeal, to be calculated at the highest Fiars of the County, per Annum, where there shall be no such Dwelling House or Manse; and that such Stipend of not less than One hundred Pounds, or not less than One hundred and twenty Pounds, shall be permanently provided and secured in all Time coming for the Minister of the said Parish; and that if there shall be a Dwelling House or Manse, the Title to such Dwelling House or Manse and Offices and Appurtenances shall be taken and conceived so that such Dwelling House or Manse and Offices and Appurtenances shall be inalienably secured as the Dwelling House or Manse and Offices and Appurtenances for the Minister of the said Parish; and that due Provision shall be made for the future Maintenance of the Fabric of such Dwelling House or Manse and Offices and Appurtenances, all to the Satisfaction of the said Lords of Council and Session; and the Right of Presbyteries to present to vacant Parishes jure devoluto, according to the Law of Scotland, shall have Place in regard to all Parishes erected quoad sacra as aforesaid, in the same Manner as in regard to other Parishes. Endowment of Minister.

IX. And be it enacted, That in every such Church as aforesaid a Portion of the Sittings therein, to be determined by the Sheriff of the County in which such Church is situated, and not exceeding One Tenth of the whole Sittings, shall be set apart as free Seats for all Persons frequenting the same; and another Portion of the Sittings therein, not exceeding One Fifth of the whole Sittings, shall be let at Rents not exceeding a Rate to be fixed by the Presbytery of the Bounds; and the remaining Portion of the Sittings may be let in such Manner as shall be agreed upon by the Minister for the Time being, and the Person or Persons liable for the Repair of the Church and for the Stipend of the Minister, or in case of not agreeing, then in such Manner as shall be determined by the Sheriff of the County as aforesaid: Provided always, that One Pew shall be appropriated, Rent-free, for the Accommodation of the Family of the Minister, and another Pew for the officiating Elders; and the Pew or Seat Rents of any such Church as aforesaid may be expended and applied for the Purpose of defraying the necessary Expences of a Precentor, a Beadle or Kirk Officer, and other Expences necessarily incurred in dispensing the Ordinances of Religion therein, and not otherwise provided for, and for the Purpose of upholding in due Repair and improving the Fabric of such Church, or of the Dwelling House and Offices of the Minister, or for the Relief of any Person or Persons who may have undertaken or become liable to uphold the same, or who may be liable for the Endowment or Stipend provided and secured for the Minister of such Church; and it shall be lawful to make Collections at the Door of any such Church for any of the Purposes aforesaid: Provided also, that the Sum received by any Person liable to uphold the Church or Dwelling House, or liable for the Endowment or Stipend as aforesaid, shall not in any Year exceed the Sum paid or expended by such Person in the same Year by reason of such Liability. Sittings.

An Act for amending an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Administration of Justice in His Majesty's Privy Council; and to extend its Jurisdiction and Powers. [6th August 1844.]

3&4W.4. c.41. ' WHEREAS the Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Administration of Justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, hath been found beneficial ' to the due Administration of Justice: And whereas another Act, passed in the Sixth Year of the said
5&6W.4. c.83. ' Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Law touching Letters Patent for Inventions, hath been also found ' advantageous to Inventors and to the Public: And whereas the Judicial Committee acting under the ' Authority of the said Acts hath been found to answer well the Purposes for which it was so established ' by Parliament, but it is found necessary to improve its Proceedings in some respects, for the better ' Despatch of Business, and expedient also to extend its Jurisdiction and Powers: And whereas by the ' Laws now in force in certain of Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions abroad no Appeals can be ' brought to Her Majesty in Council for the Reversal of the Judgments, Sentences, Decrees, and Orders of ' any Courts of Justice within such Colonies, save only of the Courts of Error or Courts of Appeal within ' the same, and it is expedient that Her Majesty in Council should be authorized to provide for the Admis- ' sion of Appeals from other Courts of Justice within such Colonies or Possessions:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be competent to Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be from Time to Time for that Purpose made with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to provide for the Admission of any Appeal or Appeals to Her Majesty in Council from any Judgments, Sentences, Decrees, or Orders of any Court of Justice within any British Colony or Possession abroad, although such Court shall not be a Court of Errors or a Court of Appeal within such Colony or Possession; and it shall also be competent to Her Majesty,

Her Majesty, by Order in Council, may provide for the Admission of an Appeal from any Colony, although there shall not be a Court of Error

Majesty, by any such Order or Orders as aforesaid, to make all such Provisions as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem meet for the instituting and prosecuting any such Appeals, and for carrying into effect any such Decisions or Sentences as Her Majesty in Council shall pronounce thereon: Provided always, that it shall be competent to Her Majesty in Council to revoke, alter, and amend any such Order or Orders as aforesaid, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem meet: Provided also, that any such Order as aforesaid may be either general and extending to all Appeals to be brought from any such Court of Justice as aforesaid, or special and extending only to any Appeal to be brought in any particular Case: Provided also, that every such general Order in Council as aforesaid shall be published in the London Gazette within One Calendar Month next after the making thereof: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to take away or diminish any Power now by Law vested in Her Majesty for regulating Appeals to Her Majesty in Council from the Judgments, Sentences, Decrees, or Orders of any Courts of Justice within any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad.

or of Appeal in such Colony; and may revoke such Orders.

Orders may be either general or special.

General Orders to be published.

Not to affect present Powers for regulating Appeals from the Colonies.

II. 'And whereas it is expedient, for the further Encouragement of Inventions in the useful Arts, 'to enable the Time of Monopoly in Patents to be extended in Cases in which it can be satisfactorily 'shown that the Expence of the Invention hath been greater than the Time now limited by Law will 'suffice to reimburse;' be it enacted, That if any Person, having obtained a Patent for any Invention, shall before the Expiration thereof present a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, setting forth that he has been unable to obtain a due Remuneration for his Expence and Labour in perfecting such Invention, and that an exclusive Right of using and vending the same, for the further Period of Seven Years, in addition to the Term in such Patent mentioned, will not suffice for his Reimbursement and Remuneration, then, if the Matter of such Petition shall be by Her Majesty referred to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, the said Committee shall proceed to consider the same after the Manner and in the usual Course of its Proceedings touching Patents, and if the said Committee shall be of opinion, and shall so report to Her Majesty, that a further Period greater than Seven Years Extension of the said Patent Term ought to be granted to the Petitioner, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She shall so think fit, to grant an Extension thereof for any Time not exceeding Fourteen Years, in like Manner and subject to the same Rules as the Extension for a Term not exceeding Seven Years is now granted under the Powers of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty.

On Petition, Her Majesty may grant an Extension of Patent Term in certain Cases.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Judicial Committee from reporting that an Extension for any Period not exceeding Seven Years should be granted, or prevent Her Majesty from granting an Extension for such lesser Term than the Petition shall have prayed.

Her Majesty may grant a lesser Term than that prayed.

IV. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen touching the Power given by the said recited Act of the Sixth 'Year of the Reign of His late Majesty in Cases where the Patentees have wholly or in part assigned 'their Right;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, on the Report of the Judicial Committee, to grant such Extension as is authorized by the said Act and by this Act, either to an Assignee or Assignees or to the original Patentee or Patentees, or to an Assignee or Assignees and original Patentee or Patentees conjointly.

Disclaimer and Memorandum of Alteration under 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 83. may be made notwithstanding original Patentee may have assigned his Patent Right.

VI. And be it enacted, That any Disclaimer or Memorandum of Alteration before the passing of this Act, or by virtue of the said recited Act, by such Patentee with such Assignee or by such Assignee as aforesaid, shall be valid and effectual to bind any Person or Persons in whom the said Letters Patent might then be or have since become vested; and no Objection shall be made in any Proceeding whatsoever that the Party making such Disclaimer or Memorandum of Alteration had not Authority in that Behalf.

Disclaimer and Memorandum of Alteration already made to be deemed valid.

VII. And be it enacted, That any new Letters Patent which before the passing of this Act may have been granted, under the Provisions of the above-recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, to an Assignee or Assignees, shall be as valid and effectual as if the said Letters Patent had been made after the passing of this Act, and the Title of any Party to such new Letters Patent shall not be invalidated by reason of the same having been granted to an Assignee or Assignees: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall give any Validity or Effect to any Letters Patent heretofore granted to any Assignee or Assignees where any Action or Proceeding in Scire facias or Suit in Equity shall have been commenced at any Time before the passing of this Act, wherein the Validity of such Letters Patent shall have been or may be questioned.

New Letters Patent granted under 5 & 6 W. 4. to Assignees before passing of this Act declared valid.

VIII. so referred, and shall, if they so think fit, proceed upon such Clerk's Report to them as if such formal Proofs had been taken by and before the said Judicial Committee.

IX. And be it enacted, That in case any Petition of Appeal whatever shall be presented, addressed to Her Majesty in Council, and such Petition shall be duly lodged with the Clerk of the Privy Council, it shall be lawful for the said Judicial Committee to proceed in hearing and reporting upon such Appeal, without any special Order in Council referring the same to them, provided that Her Majesty in Council shall have, by an Order in Council in the Month of November, directed that all Appeals shall be referred to the said Judicial Committee on which Petitions may be presented to Her Majesty in Council during the Twelve Months next after the making of such Order; and that the said Judicial Committee shall proceed to hear and report upon all such Appeals in like Manner as if each such Appeal had been referred to the said Judicial Committee by a special Order of Her Majesty in Council: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council at any Time to rescind any general Order so made; and in case of such Order being so rescinded all Petitions of Appeal shall in the first instance be preferred to Her Majesty in Council, and shall not be proceeded with by the said Judicial Committee without a special Order of Reference.

Sessions of the Peace for Westminster not to be holden.

XI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, 'intituled An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace for Westminster to hold their Sessions of the Peace 'during Term and the sitting of the Court of King's Bench, the Sessions of the Peace for the said City 'and Liberty are limited to the Weeks preceding the holding of each of the Quarter or General Sessions 'of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex: And whereas by ancient Usage and of Right the 'Justices of the Peace for Middlesex have constantly holden and may hold their Sessions of the Peace for 'the said County within the said City and Liberty, and the holding of Sessions for the City and Liberty 'has become unnecessary;' be it enacted, That after the Session of the Peace which shall be holden in and for the said City and Liberty next after the passing of this Act Sessions of the Peace in and for the said City and Liberty shall cease to be holden, and the Sessions to be holden in and for the said County of Middlesex shall be holden by Adjournment within the said City and Liberty, and shall have full Jurisdiction over all Things cognizable by the Sessions for the said City and Liberty; and that the Inhabitants of the said City and Liberty shall not be exempted from serving on Juries at the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex holden within the said City and Liberty.

Justices for the County to have the sole Control over the Court House for Westminster.

XV. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act all the Powers and Property in respect of the said New Bridewell by the before-mentioned Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, vested in the Justices for the said City and Liberty of Westminster, and also all the Furniture, Goods, and Chattels belonging to the said New Bridewell, shall be transferred to and vested in the Justices for the said County.

Declaration of Qualification to be made in the Council.

III. And be it enacted, That every elective Member of the said Legislative Council, before he shall sit or vote in the said Council after the Election of a Speaker, shall make the said Declaration in Writing under his Hand, by delivering to the Clerk of the Council, at the Place where and while the Council is sitting, with the Speaker in the Chair, a Paper signed by such Member containing the said Declaration, and also a Statement of the County or Counties in which the Lands or Tenements are situated out of which his Qualification arises, with such other Description thereof as may serve to identify the same, and the Nature of his Estate or Interest therein or in the Rents and Profits thereof; and the said Papers shall be filed and kept by the Clerk with the other Records of his Office; and every elective Member of the said Council who shall sit and vote in the said Council after the Election of a Speaker before making such Declaration as aforesaid shall be liable, for every Day on which he shall so offend, to a Penalty of Two hundred Pounds; and if he shall not be qualified according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act, his Election shall be void, and a new Writ shall be issued to elect another Member in his Stead.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Dividends upon the Annuities so transferred, from the respective Times of the Transfer thereof, and all Balances of Sums issued for paying any Part of the Principal Sums invested in such Annuities which shall not have been demanded for the same Period, shall be paid to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Time being, and shall be from Time to Time invested by the said Commissioners in the Purchase of Capital Stock in some of the Public Stocks or Funds of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be placed to a separate Account to be called "The Account of Unclaimed Dividends," and so from Time to Time as such Dividends and Balances of Principal Sums become due, and can be so invested; and all such Dividends and Balances, and the Capital Stock arising from the Investment thereof as aforesaid, shall be held by the said Commissioners for the Public, subject nevertheless to such Claims to such Stock, and the Dividends due thereon, as may thereafter be made by the respective Parties entitled thereto.

By whom Transfers shall be made.

V. And be it enacted, That all Transfers to be made by the said Company in pursuance of this Act shall be made and signed by the Accountant or the Secretary of the said Company for the Time being, and shall be as valid as if signed by the Party or Parties in whose Name or Names the Stock or Annuities so transferred shall stand at the Time of such Transfer; and the said Company, and the said Accountant and Secretary of the said Company, shall be indemnified and saved harmless for making and executing all such Transfers under this Act, and shall not be in any Manner accountable to the Person or Persons entitled or claiming to be entitled to the Annuities which shall be so transferred, or to his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or to any other Person claiming by, from, or under him, her, or them, or to any other Person or Persons whatsoever having or claiming any Interest whatsoever therein.

CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act for regulating the Construction and the Use of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood. [9th August 1844.]

Extension of Limits, and Amendment of Law.

Improvement of Drainage.

'WHEREAS by the several Acts mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed Provisions 'are made for regulating the Construction of Buildings in the Metropolis, and the Neighbourhood 'thereof, within certain Limits therein set forth; but forasmuch as Buildings have since been extended 'in nearly continuous Lines or Streets far beyond such Limits, so that they do not now include all the 'Places to which the Provisions of such Acts, according to the Purposes thereof, ought to apply, and 'moreover such Provisions require Alteration and Amendment, it is expedient to extend such Limits, 'and otherwise to amend such Acts: And forasmuch as in many Parts of the Metropolis and the Neigh-'bourhood thereof the Drainage of the Houses is so imperfect as to endanger the Health of the Inhabitants, 'it is expedient to make Provision for facilitating and promoting the Improvement of such Drainage:

'And

'And forasmuch as by reason of the Narrowness of Streets, Lanes, and Alleys, and the Want of a Thoroughfare in many Places, the due Ventilation of crowded Neighbourhoods is often impeded, and the Health of the Inhabitants thereby endangered, and from the close Contiguity of the opposite Houses the Risk of Accident by Fire is extended, it is expedient to make Provision with regard to the Streets and other Ways of the Metropolis for securing a sufficient Width thereof: And forasmuch as many Buildings and Parts of Buildings unfit for Dwellings are used for that Purpose, whereby Disease is engendered, fostered, and propagated, it is expedient to discourage and prohibit such Use thereof: And forasmuch as by the carrying on in populous Neighbourhoods of certain Works, in which Materials of an explosive or inflammable Kind are used, the Risk of Accidents arising from such Works is much increased, it is expedient to regulate not only the Construction of the Buildings in which such dangerous Works are carried on, but also to provide for the same being carried on in Buildings at safe Distances from other Buildings which are used either for Habitation or for Trade in populous Neighbourhoods: And forasmuch as by the carrying on of certain Works of a noisome Kind, or in which deleterious Materials are used, or deleterious Products are created, the Health and Comfort of the Inhabitants are extensively impaired and endangered, it is expedient to make Provision for the Adoption of all such Expedients as either have been or shall be devised for carrying on such Businesses, so as to render them as little noisome or deleterious as possible to the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood; and if there be no such Expedients, or if such Expedients be not available in a sufficient Degree, then for the carrying on of such noisome and unwholesome Businesses at safer Distances from other Buildings used for Habitation: And forasmuch as great Diversity of Practice has obtained among the Officers appointed in pursuance of the said Acts to superintend the Execution thereof in the several Districts to which such Acts apply, and the Means at present provided for determining the numerous Matters in question which constantly arise tend to promote such Diversity, to increase the Expence, and to retard the Operations of Persons engaged in building, it is expedient to make further Provision for regulating the Office of Surveyor of such several Districts, and to provide for the Appointment of Officers to superintend the Execution of this Act throughout all the Districts to which it is to apply, and also to determine sundry Matters in question incident thereto, as well as to exercise in certain Cases, and under certain Checks and Control, a Discretion in the Relaxation of the fixed Rules, where the strict Observance thereof is impracticable, or would defeat the Object of this Act, or would needlessly affect with Injury the Course and Operation of this Branch of Business:' Now for all the several Purposes above mentioned, and for the Purpose of consolidating the Provisions of the Law relating to the Construction and the Use of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That with regard to this Act generally, so far as relates to the Operation thereof in reference to Time, it shall come into operation at the following Times; (that is to say,) as to the Districts and the Officers to be appointed in pursuance hereof on the First Day of September next, and as to the Buildings, Streets, and other Matters on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-five; and that on the said First Day of January all the Acts mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, except so far as in the said Schedule is provided, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Classes of Buildings.

For the Purposes of this Act, all Buildings of whatever Kind, subject to the Provisions thereof, are to be deemed to belong to one or other of the following Three Classes; that is to say,

First Class.

If a Building be built originally as a Dwelling House, or be occupied or intended to be occupied as such, then it is to be deemed to belong to the First or Dwelling House Class.

Second Class.

If a Building be built originally as a Warehouse, Storehouse, Granary, Brewery, Distillery, Manufactory, Workshop, or Stable, or be occupied or intended to be occupied as such, or for a similar Purpose, then it is to be deemed to belong to the Second or Warehouse Class.

Third Class.

If a Building be built originally as a Church, Chapel, or other Place of Public Worship, College, Hall, Hospital, Theatre, public Concert Room, public Ball Room, public Lecture Room, public Exhibition Room, or occupied or intended to be occupied as such, or for a similar Purpose, or otherwise used or intended intended to be used, either temporarily or permanently, for the Assemblage of Persons in large Numbers, whether for Public Worship, Business, Instruction, Debate, Diversion, or Resort, then it is to be deemed to belong to the Third or public Building Class.

Alteration of Class.

And if any Room, whether constructed within any other Building or not, and whether included in the aforesaid Classes or not, be used at any Time for the public or general Congregation of Persons, then the Building containing such Room is to be deemed a Building of the Third or Public Building Class.

Or if a Building originally built, or subsequently altered so as to bring it within any one Class, be subsequently converted into or used as a Building of another Class, then it is to be deemed to belong to such other Class; and as to it all the Conditions prescribed with regard to Buildings of the same Rate of such other Class must be fulfilled as if it had been originally built of such Class, subject nevertheless to such Modifications as shall be sanctioned by the Official Referees on a special Supervision thereof.

Rates of Buildings.

And the Buildings included in the said Classes are to be deemed to belong to the Rates of those Classes, according to the Conditions of Height, Area, and Number of Stories set forth in the following Tables; which Conditions are to be determined according to the following Rules:—

Rule for ascertaining Height.

The Height of every Building is to be ascertained by measuring from the Surface of the lowest Floor of the Building up to the under Side of the Ceiling of the topmost Story at the highest Part thereof, whether such Story be within the Roof or not.

And if there be no Ceiling made or intended to be made to the topmost Story, then by measuring from the Surface of such lowest Floor of the Building up to the under Side of any Tie-beam, Collar-beam, or other Substitute for a Tie-beam, to or within the Roof of the Building, and to the highest Part of such Roof; and the Level of the under Side of such Tie-beam, or such Substitute for a Tie-beam, is in such Case to be taken to mean the Ceiling of the topmost Story.

Rule for ascertaining Area.

And the Area of every Building is to be determined by the Number of Squares contained in the Surface of any Floor which shall contain the greatest Number of Squares at or above the principal Entrance to such Building, including in such Surface the Area of all the external Walls, and such Portions of the Party Walls, as belong to such Building, but excluding from such Surface the Area of any attached Building or Office, Area, Balcony, or open Portico.

Rule for ascertaining the Capacity of any Building of the Second Class.

And the Capacity or Cubical Contents of any such Building is to be ascertained by measuring according to the Rule for ascertaining the Area, and from the Surface of the lowest Floor up to the under Surface of the Roof Covering of such Building.

Rule for ascertaining Number of Stories.

And the Stories of every Building are to be counted from the Foundation upwards.

And if the Space in Height between the Top of the Footings and the Level of the lowest Floor do not exceed Five Feet, then the Story nearest the Foundation is to be considered the lowest or first Story; but if such Space exceed Five Feet, then such Space is to be considered to contain the lowest or first Story; and in that Case Nine Inches above the Top of the Footing is to be considered the Level of the lowest Floor.

Rule for ascertaining Thickness of Walls.

If such Buildings be situate Fifteen Feet at the least from any other Building, and do not cover an Area of more than One Square and One Half, and the Height thereof do not exceed Twelve Feet from the Ground to the highest Point of the Roof, then every such Building may be inclosed with any Materials whatsoever, but the Roof thereof must be covered as herein directed with regard to Roofs, and the Chimney and Flue (if any) must be built as herein directed with regard to Chimneys and Flues.

SCHEDULE (D.)

PART I.—RULES concerning WALLS of whatever Kind.

Foundations.

With regard to the Foundations of Walls:—

Every external Wall, and every Party Wall, and every Party Fence Wall, must be built upon a constructed Footing, based upon solid Ground, or upon other sufficient Foundation.

Footings.

With regard to Footings of Walls, in reference to the Materials thereof, to the Width thereof, to the Height thereof above the Foundation, and to the Depth below the Surface:—

Materials.

1. In reference to the Materials thereof:—

Every Footing must be built either of sound Bricks or of Stone, or of such Bricks and Stone together, laid in and with Mortar or Cement in such Manner as to produce solid Work.

Width.

Width.

3. In reference to the Width thereof:—

The Bottom of the Footing of every external Wall and Party Wall of the First Rate must be at the least 17½ Inches wider than the Wall standing thereon; and the Bottom of every Footing of every external Wall and Party Wall of the Second and Third Rates must be at the least 13 Inches wider than the Wall standing thereon; and the Bottom of the Footing of every external Wall and Party Wall of the Fourth Rate, and of every Party Fence Wall, must be at the least 8½ Inches wider than the Wall standing thereon.

The Top of the Footing of every Party Fence Wall, and of every external Wall and Party Wall, must be at the least Four Inches wider than the Wall standing thereon.

Height.

4. In reference to the Height above the Foundation:—

The Footing of every external Wall and Party Wall of the First Rate must be at the least Eleven Inches high above the Foundation.

The Footing of every external Wall and Party Wall of the Second and Third Rates must be at the least Eight Inches high above the Foundation.

The Footing of every Party Fence Wall, and of every external Wall and Party Wall, of the Fourth Rate, must be at the least Five Inches high above the Foundation.

Depth below Ground.

5. In reference to the Depth thereof below the Surface of the lowest Ground or Area adjoining:—

The Top of the Footing of every Party Fence Wall, and of every external Wall and Party Wall, must be at the least Three Inches below such Surface.

Depth below lowest Floor.

6. In reference to the Depth thereof below the Surface of the lowest Floor adjoining or intended to adjoin thereto:—

The Top of the Footing of every external Wall and Party Wall must be at the least Nine Inches below such Surface; and in any Building of the First Class the Surface of the Earth or of any Paving on the Outside (except the Pavement of any public Way) must not at any Time be raised to within Six Inches of the Surface of the lowest or First Floor of such Building.

Thicknesses of inclosing Walls to Stories of Buildings of whatever Rate.

With regard to the inclosing Walls to Stories of Buildings of the First and Second Classes, each of the inclosing Walls of any such Story throughout the whole Height thereof, from the Top of the Footing up to the Top of such Story, and with all the Sets-off in addition required for such Wall, to whatever Rate or whichever Class it may belong, and throughout at the least One Third of the whole Length of such Wall, in Piers properly distributed, must be of the following Dimensions (unless cross or return Walls, coursed and bonded with the inclosing Walls, shall in the Opinion of the Official Referees, upon special Application to them in each particular Case, give sufficient Strength with less Thickness in such inclosing Walls); that is to say,—

As to First Class Buildings:—If the Story be in Height more than 11 Feet, then the Thickness of its inclosing Walls must be at the least 13 Inches.

Or if the Story be in Height more than 15 Feet, then the Thickness of its inclosing Walls must be at the least 17½ Inches.

As to Second Class Buildings:—If the Story be in Height more than 9 Feet, then the Thickness of its inclosing Walls must be at the least 13 Inches.

Or if the Story be in Height more than 12 Feet, then the Thickness of its inclosing Walls must be at the least 17½ Inches.

Or if the Story be in Height more than 15 Feet, then the Thickness of its inclosing Walls must be at the least 21½ Inches.

Or if the Story be in Height more than 18 Feet, then the Thickness of its inclosing Walls must be at the least 26 Inches.

Nevertheless as to any external Wall of any Building of the First Class in which there are no Apertures or Recesses,—If there be another external Wall and a cross Wall of not less than 8½ Inches thick coursing and bonding with such external Wall, or if Two such cross Walls occur within a Length of 24 Feet of such Wall, then such external Wall may be built of the Thickness of 13 Inches, of any Height not exceeding 18 Feet, within any Story, although the Rate of the Wall may require a greater Thickness, but always upon condition that the Substructure of such Wall is 4 Inches thicker at the least than such Superstructure, and vertically under it.

And also if any such Wall be abutted by cross or return Walls within a Length of 12 Feet, and if not more than One Aperture or Recess occur within such Length of 12 Feet, and not more than One Half the Quantity in Length be taken out of such Compartment of a Wall by any such Aperture or Recess, then such external Wall may be built of any Thickness not less than 13 Inches, notwithstanding the Rate of such Wall may require a greater Thickness.

PART II.—EXTERNAL WALLS.

Construction and Materials.

And with regard to the component Materials of external Walls to Buildings of whatever Class,—

Every such Wall must be built of sound Bricks or of Stone, or of such Bricks and Stone together, laid in and with Mortar or Cement in such Manner as to produce solid Work; and every such Wall must be carried up of its full Thickness to the under Side of the Plate under the Roof.

Nevertheless in such Walls, besides all requisite Openings for Doors and Windows, Recesses may be formed, so that the Back thereof be of the Thickness of Eight Inches and a Half at the least, and so that the Stability and Sufficiency of the Wall be not injuriously affected by making such Recesses.

And with regard to other Substances than the component Materials of external Walls,—

There may be such Wood and Iron as shall be necessary.

And every Plate, Lintel, Bond, Corbel, being of Wood, and every Wood-brick laid into any external Wall, and all Ends of Joists, of Girders, and of the Heads and Sills of Partitions running into any external Wall, must be fixed at a Distance from the external Face of the Wall of Four Inches at the least.

And the Frames of Doors and Windows must be fixed in Reveals at a Distance from the external Face of the Wall of Four Inches at the least.

And Shop Fronts must be fixed in such Manner as is herein specially directed.

And the Tiers of Door Cases to Warehouses must be fixed in the Openings left in such Walls at a Distance from the external Face of the Wall of Two Inches at the least.

But no Timber must be laid into any external Wall in such Manner or of such Length as to render the Part of the Wall above it wholly or in great Part dependent upon the Wood for Support, or so that any such Wood might not be withdrawn without endangering the Safety of the superincumbent Structure, except in the Case of Brestsummers.

Height and Thickness of Parapets.

And with regard to external Walls, in reference to the Height and Thickness of any Parapet thereon,—

If an external Wall adjoin a Gutter, then such external Wall must be carried up, and remain One Foot at the least above the highest Part of such Gutter.

And the Thickness of an external Wall so carried up, above the Level of the under Side of the Gutter Plate, and forming a Parapet, must be at the least,—

In every such Wall of the extra First Rate of the First Class, and in every such Wall of the First Rate of the Second Class, 13 Inches thick; and—

In every other external Wall, of whatever Rate or whichever Class, 8½ Inches thick.

Brestsummers.

h regard to every Brestsummer fixed to carry any front Wall of a Building,—

If such Brestsummer have a Bearing at one End upon a Party Wall, then it must be laid upon a Template or Corbel of Stone or Iron, which Template or Corbel must be tailed through such Wall at least Two Thirds of the Thickness thereof; and the End of such Brestsummer must not be fixed into, and must not have its Bearing solely upon, such Party Wall, but must be supported by a sufficient Pier built of Brick or Stone, or by an Iron Column, or Iron or Timber Story Post fixed on a solid Foundation.

And if any such Brestsummer have its Bearing at each End upon a Party Wall, then it must be supported by at least Two sufficient Piers built of Brick or Stone, or by Iron Columns, or by Iron or Timber Story Posts fixed on solid Foundations, and standing within and clear of the Party Walls.

Or any such Brestsummer may bear upon constructed Returns in the Direction of the Length of the Brestsummer of Four Inches at the least, coursed and bonded with the Substance of the Party Wall or Party Walls; and such constructed Returns must be increased One Inch at the least for every Six Feet in Length that the Brestsummer may be otherwise unsupported.

And if the Height of the under Side of any Brestsummer laid from Party Wall to Party Wall to carry any external Wall exceed 15 Feet from the Surface of the Public Foot Pavement in front of the Building, then there must be constructed Returns in the Direction of the Length of the Brestsummer from the Inside of each Party Wall of 8½ Inches at the least, and at the least of the full Thickness of such Brestsummer; and every such Return must be increased One Inch at the least for every Foot or Part of a Foot the Brestsummer may be in Height from the Surface of the public Foot Pavement more than 16 Feet, whether the Brestsummer be otherwise supported or not.

Materials to be used in Repairs.

And with regard to old external Walls or other external Inclosures of any Building already built, in reference to Materials to be used in the Repair thereof,—

If any such Wall or Inclosure be not built of the Materials required by this Act for external Walls or other external Inclosures hereafter to be built, then every Part of such Wall or other external Inclosure (except the Inclosure of Roofs, and the Flats, Gutters, Dormers, Turrets, Lantern-lights, and other Erections thereon,) may be at all Times thereafter repaired with Materials of the same Sort as those of which such external Wall or Inclosure has been already built.

Materials

Materials to be used in rebuilding.

But if any such external Wall or Inclosure be at any Time hereafter taken down or otherwise demolished for the Height of One Story, or for a Space equal to One Fourth of the whole Surface of such external Wall, then every Part thereof not built in the Manner and of the several Materials by this Act directed for external Walls must be taken down, and the same must be rebuilt in such Manner, and of such Materials, and in all respects as by this Act directed for external Walls hereafter to be built, according to the Class and Rate of the Building to which such external Wall or Inclosure shall belong.

External Wall used as a Party Wall.

And with regard to external Walls to be used as Party Walls to any Building adjoining thereto (except an attached Building or Office as is herein-before described),—

If the external Wall of any Building have not such Footings, or be not of such Heights and Thicknesses, or be not built in such Manner and of such Materials as are herein directed for Party Walls of Buildings of the highest Rate to which such Wall shall adjoin, then such external Wall must not be used as a Party Wall for any such Building; but there must be a distinct external Wall built as herein described for external Walls of the Rate to which it shall belong.

But if such external Wall to any Building already built be at the least 13 Inches in Thickness in every Part, and be of sound and proper Materials, and in good Condition, then such Wall may be used as a Party Wall; but if the House of which such Wall forms a Part be rebuilt within Five Years from the Time at which the Wall shall have been so first used as a Party Wall, then such Wall must become subject to the Provisions of this Act in respect of Party Walls, according to the Class and Rate to which the said Wall did first belong.

Part III.—Party Walls.

Division of Buildings.

And with regard to Walls used to divide single Buildings into Two or more,—

If it be intended to divide any Building into Two or more distinct Parts, then every Wall for that Purpose must be built as a Party Wall in the Manner and of the Materials, and of the several Heights and Thicknesses for Party Walls of the highest Rate of Building to which such Party Wall shall belong or adjoin, as prescribed in reference to the Thicknesses of Party Walls in Schedule (C.)

And if any Building already built or which shall be hereafter built be converted, used, or occupied as Two or more separate Buildings, each having a separate Entrance and Staircase, then every such Building shall be deemed to be Two or more separate Houses, and such separate Houses must be divided from each other by a Party Wall or Party Arch or Arches built in the Manner and of the Materials required for Party Walls, or for Party Arches, for the Class and Rate to which the largest of the Buildings so divided shall belong.

Site of Walls.

With regard to Party Walls, in reference to the Site thereof,—

If the Buildings be of equal Rate then such Party Wall must be built on the Line of Junction of such Buildings, One Half on the Ground of the Owner of one of such Buildings, and One Half on the Ground of the Owner of the other of such Buildings.

If such Buildings be of different Rates, then such Wall must be built on the Line of Junction thereof, as follows; that is to say, One Half of the Thickness of the Wall required for the Building of the lower Rate on the Ground of each of the adjoining Owners; and the whole of the additional Thickness of the Wall required for the Building of the higher Rate on the Ground of the Owner of such Building of the higher Rate.

And if such Building of the lower Rate be thereafter enlarged or altered so as to become a Building of a higher Rate, then the Owner of such first-mentioned Building of the higher Rate for the Time being shall be entitled to receive from the Owner of such Building of the lower Rate such Sum of Money as shall be a sufficient Compensation for the Ground occupied by that Portion of the Party Wall, which according to the Rate of the Building enlarged ought to have been built by its Owner on his own Ground, as well as the Value of so much of the Wall itself as may be more than the Owner of such Building of the lower Rate had already paid for.

Construction and Materials.

And with regard to Party Walls, in reference to the component Materials thereof,—

Every Part of such Party Wall must be built of sound Bricks or of Stone, or of such Bricks and Stone together, laid in and with Mortar or Cement in such Manner as to produce solid Work.

And as to the Wood-work which it may be desired to connect with the Party Walls of any Building, the bearing Ends of wooden Beams, Brestsummers, Girders, Trimming Joists, and the Ends of Partition Heads and Sills, and the bearing Ends of the main Timbers of a Roof, and Wood-bricks may

may be laid into the Substance of a Party Wall; but no such Beam, Brestsummer, Girder, Joist, Partition Head, or Sill, nor any Part of a Roof being Wood, nor any Wood-bricks, must be laid or placed within Four Inches of the Centre of any Party Wall; and no other Wood-work of any Kind must be laid into, placed upon, or be run or driven into any Part of the Substance of any Party Wall.

But if the Ends of Timbers be carried on Iron Shoes or Stone Corbels, then such Iron Shoes or Stone Corbels must be built into the Wall at the least One Half of the Thickness of such Wall.

And the Top of every such Party Wall must be finished with one Course of sound Stock Bricks, set on edge with good Cement, or by a Coping of any other properly secured and sufficient Water-proof and Fire-proof Covering.

Height of Party Walls above Roof.

And with regard to Party Walls, in reference to the Height thereof,—

If a Party Wall adjoin to any Roof, then such Party Wall must be carried up and remain One Foot Six Inches at the least above the Part where the Party Wall and Roof adjoin, measured at a Right Angle with the Back of the Rafters of such Roof.

And if any Party Wall in any Building of the First Class adjoin a Gutter, then such Party Wall must be carried up, and remain Two Feet at the least above the highest Part of any such Gutter.

And if any Party Wall in any Building of the Second Class adjoin a Gutter, then such Party Wall must be carried up, and remain Three Feet at the least above the highest Part of any such Gutter.

If there be fixed within Five Feet of a Party Wall, upon the Flat or Roof of the Building, any Turret, Dormer, Lantern-light, or other Erection of combustible Materials, then every such Party Wall must be carried up next to every such Turret, Dormer, Lantern-light, or other Erection, and must extend One Foot Six Inches higher and One Foot Six Inches wider than any such Erection on each Side thereof.

Openings in Party Walls.

And for the Purpose of regulating the making of Openings through any Party Wall between One Dwelling House and another, whereby Two or more Dwelling Houses shall be united,—

With regard to any Dwelling Houses of any Rate, such Dwelling Houses may be united by Means of Openings in the Party Walls.

But with regard to any Dwelling Houses which when so united will contain more than Fourteen Squares,—

If such Dwelling Houses shall be and continue to be in the same Occupation, then upon its being declared by the Official Referees that in their Opinion the Stability and Security from Fire of any or either of such Dwelling Houses will not be endangered by making such Openings, they may be made accordingly.

Recesses and Chases.

And further, with regard to any Party Wall, as to Recesses and as to Chases in such Wall,—

In every Story Recesses may be formed, but only with the Consent and Authority of the Official Referees first had and obtained, and so that such Recesses be arched over, and so that the Back of any such Recess be not nearer than Seven Inches to the Centre of the Party Wall in the first or lowest Story, nor nearer than Four Inches to the Centre of the Party Wall in any other Story, and so that the Stability and Sufficiency of such Party Wall be not injuriously affected thereby.

If any Chases be required for the Insertion of Ends of Walls, of Piers, of Chimney Jambs, of Withes of Flues, of Metal Pipes, or of Iron Story Posts, then every Chase for any such Purpose must not be left or be cut nearer than Four Inches at the least to the Centre of a Party Wall, nor within a Distance of Nine Inches at the least from any front or back Wall, and no Two such Chases must be made within a Distance of Seven Feet Six Inches at the least from each other on the same Side of a Wall, and no such Chase must be formed wider than Nine Inches.

PART IV.—PARTY WALLS AND PARTY ARCHES BETWEEN INTERMIXED PROPERTY.

And with regard to any Building already built, having Rooms or Floors, the Property of different Owners, which lie intermixed, without being separated by any Party Wall or Party Arch or Stone Floor,—

If any such Building be altogether rebuilt or to the Extent of One Fourth of the cubical Contents thereof, then such intermixed Properties must be separated from each other, as follows:

If they adjoin vertically, then so far as they adjoin vertically they must be separated by a Party Wall.

If they adjoin horizontally, then so far as they adjoin horizontally they must be separated either by a Floor formed of Brick, Tile, Stone, or other proper and sufficient incombustible Materials, subject to the Consent of the Official Referees, or by a Floor formed of Iron Girders and Brick Arches, or Stone Landings, or Tiles, or by a Party Arch or Party Arches of Brick or Stone of the Thickness of Nine Inches at the least, if the Span do not exceed Nine Feet, and Thirteen Inches at the least if the Span exceed Nine Feet; and such Floor or Party Arch or Party Arches must be built with sufficient Abutments, and in a sufficient Manner.

PART V.—BUILDINGS OVER PUBLIC WAYS.

And with regard to Buildings extending over any public Way, as to the Part thereof which extends over such Way, so far as relates to the Separation of such Part from such public Way,—

If such Part be rebuilt, then it must be separated from such public Way, either by a Floor or Arch formed of Brick or Stone or of other incombustible Materials, subject to the Consent of the Official Referees, or by a Floor formed of Iron Girders and Brick Arches, or Stone Landings, or by an Arch formed of Brick or of Stone; which Arch, if the Span thereof do not exceed Nine Feet, must be of the Thickness of Nine Inches at the least, and which, if the Span exceed Nine Feet, must be of the Thickness of Thirteen Inches at the least.

And such Floor or Arch, with its Abutments, must be built in such Manner as shall be approved of by the Surveyor; but there must not be formed over any public Way a Ceiling of Lath and Plaster, or of Lath and Cement.

SCHEDULE (E.)—(See § 5.)

RULES concerning external PROJECTIONS.

Porticoes projected over public Ways.

And with regard to the Portico or Porticoes of any Church, Chapel, Theatre, or other public Building of the Third Class,—

If the building of the same shall have been previously sanctioned by the Official Referees, by Writing under their Hands, and if Objection be not made by any Party interested within One Month thereafter, and if, upon such Objection or Appeal, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State acting for the Home Department do not decide in favour thereof, then such Projections may be built over the Foot Pavement of any Street or Alley which shall be Fifty Feet wide at the least (notwithstanding any Act heretofore passed to the contrary).

Projections from Face Walls, &c.

And further, with regard to Buildings hereafter to be built or rebuilt, in reference to Projections therefrom,—

As to Copings, Parapets, Cornices to overhanging Roofs, Blocking Courses, Cornices, Piers, Columns, Pilasters, Entablatures, Facias, Door and Window Dressings, or other Architectural Decorations, forming Part of an external Wall, all such may project beyond the general Line of Fronts in any Street or Alley, but they must be built of the same Materials as are by this Act directed to be used for building the external Walls to which such Projections belong, or of such other proper and sufficient Materials as the Official Referees may approve and permit.

And as to all Balconies, Verandahs, Porches, Porticoes, Shop Fronts, open Inclosures of open Areas and Steps, and Water Pipes, and to all other Projections from external Walls not forming Part thereof, every such Projection (except such Part of Shop Fronts, and the Frames and Sashes of the Windows and Doors, in reference to the necessary Wood-work thereof,) may stand beyond the general Line of Fronts in any Street or Alley, but they must be built of Brick, Tile, Stone, Artificial Stone, Slate, Cement, or Metal, or other proper and sufficient Fire-proof Materials; and they must be so built as not to overhang the Ground belonging to any other Owner, and so as to obstruct the Light and Air, or be otherwise injurious to the Owners or Occupiers of the Buildings adjoining thereto on any Side thereof.

Projections from Walls of Buildings over public Ways.

And with regard to all Buildings hereafter to be built or rebuilt, in reference to Projections from the Walls of such Buildings, including Steps, Cellar Doors, and Area Inclosures, the Walls of all such Buildings must be set back so that all Projections therefrom, and also all Steps, Cellar Doors, and Area Inclosures, shall only overhang or occupy the Ground of the Owner of such Building, without overhanging or encroaching upon any public Way.

Projected Buildings beyond the general Line of Buildings and from other external Walls.

And with regard to Buildings already built or hereafter to be rebuilt, as to Bow Windows or other Projections of any Kind,—

Such Projections must neither be built with nor be added to any Building on any Face of an external Wall thereof, so as to extend beyond the general Line of the Fronts of the Houses (which general Line may be determined by the Surveyor), except so far as is herein-before provided with regard to Porticoes projected over public Ways, and with regard to Projections from Face Walls and Shop Fronts, nor so as to overhang the Ground belonging to any other Owner, nor so as to obstruct the Light and Air or be otherwise injurious to the Owners or Occupiers of the Buildings adjoining thereto on any Side thereof.

Projections

Projections from insulated Buildings.

Provided always, with regard to any insulated Buildings, that if the Projections be at the least Eight Feet from any public Way, and if they be at least Twenty Feet from any other Building not in the same Occupation, then such Projections are excepted from the Rules and Directions of this Act.

Wooden Shop Fronts and Shutters.

And with regard to Shop Fronts and their Entablatures, their Shutters, and Pilasters and Stall Boards made of Wood,—

If the Street or Alley in which such Front is situate be of less Width than Thirty Feet, then no Part of such Shop Front must be higher in any Part thereof than Fifteen Feet; nor must any Part, except the Cornice, project from the Face of a Wall, whether there be an Area or not, more than Five Inches; nor must the Cornice project therefrom more than Thirteen Inches.

If the Street or Alley be of a greater Width than Thirty Feet, then no Part of such Shop Front, except the Cornice, must project from the Face of a Wall, whether there be an Area or not, more than Ten Inches; nor must the Cornice project therefrom more than Eighteen Inches.

And the Width of such Street or Alley must be ascertained by measuring the same, as hereinafter directed with regard to the Widths of Streets and Alleys.

And the Wood-work of any Shop Front must not be fixed nearer than Four and a Half Inches to the centre Line of a Party Wall.

And with regard to such Wood-work, if it be put up at such Distance of Four and a Half Inches, then a Pier or Corbel built of Stone or of Brick or other incombustible Material, and of the Width of Four and a Half Inches at the least, must be fixed in the Line of the Party Wall, so as to be as high as such Wood-work, and so as to project One Inch at the least in front of the Face thereof.

And the Height of every Shop Front must be ascertained by measuring from the Level of the public Foot Pavement in front of the Building.

And every Sign or Notice Board fixed against or upon any Part of any House or other Building standing close to any public Way must be so fixed that the Top shall be within Eighteen Feet at the most above the Level of such public Way.

SCHEDULE (F.)—(See § 5.)

RULES concerning CHIMNEYS hereafter built or rebuilt.

Construction.

With regard to Chimneys and Chimney Stacks, except angle Chimneys, in reference to the Construction thereof,—

The Foundations and Footings of every such Chimney and Chimney Stack must be built similar to those of the Wall in or adjoining to which it shall be.

And every such Chimney and Chimney Stack must be built from the Foundation to the Top thereof without any corbelling over, whereby any upper Part of the Brick-work of such Chimney or Chimney Stack shall overhang any lower Part of the Brick-work on the Front thereof.

Nevertheless, with regard to Buildings of the First Rate and extra First Rate, the Jambs, Breast, and Flue of any single Chimney may be built upon Brick, Stone, or Iron Corbels above the Ceiling of the Third Story of every such Building.

And with regard to Buildings of the Second and Third Rates, the Jambs, Breast, and Flue in any single Chimney may be built upon Brick, Stone, or Iron Corbels above the Ceiling of the Second Story of every such Building.

But the Projection both of such Jambs and Breasts must not in any Case exceed Nine Inches before the Face of the Wall or Stack to which the same shall adjoin.

And with regard to angle Chimneys, such Chimneys may be built in the internal Angle of any Building, so that the Width of the Breast thereof do not exceed Five Feet, and so that it be properly supported on Iron Girders with Brick Arches, or on strong Stone Landings not less than Four Inches thick, and tailed at least Nine Inches into each of the Two Walls forming such Angle.

Dimensions and Materials.

And with regard to Chimneys, in reference to the Dimensions of the Jambs thereof,—

The Jambs of every Chimney must not be less than Eight and a Half Inches wide on each Side of such Opening.

And with regard to Chimneys and Flues, in reference to the Thickness of the Brick-work thereof,—

The Breast of every Chimney, and the Front, Back, Withe, or Partition of every Flue, must be at the least Four Inches in Thickness of sound Bricks, properly bonded, and the Joints of the Work must be filled in with good Mortar or Cement, and all the Inside thereof, and also the Outside or Face thereof next the Interior of any Building, must be rendered or pargetted.

And with regard to Flues in reference to the Dimensions thereof, no Flue may be used for a Smoke Flue which is of less internal Diameter in any Section than Eight and a Half Inches.

Timber or Wood-work.

And with regard to Chimneys, in reference to Timber,—

No Timber must be placed over any Opening for supporting the Breast of any Chimney, but there must be an Arch of Brick or Stone over the Opening of every such Chimney, to support the Breast thereof, and an Iron Bar or Bars must be built into the Jambs, at the least Nine Inches on each Side, to tie in the Abutments whenever the Breast projects more than Four and a Half Inches from the Face of the Wall, and the Jamb on either Side is of less Width than Two Thirds of the Opening.

And no Timber or Wood-work must be placed or laid in any Wall under any Chimney Opening within Eighteen Inches at the least of the Surface of the Hearth to the Fireplace of such Chimney Opening.

And as to any Timber or Wood-work, in reference to the fixing thereof in or against any Wall containing Flues or against any Chimney Breast or Chimney Jamb,—

If Timber or Wood-work be affixed to the Front of any Jamb or Mantel, or to the Front or Back of any Chimney or Flue, then it must be fixed by Iron Nails or Holdfasts, or other Iron Fastenings, which must not be or be driven nearer than Four Inches to the Inside of any Flue or to the Opening of any Chimney, and such Timber or Wood-work must not be nearer than Nine Inches to the Opening of any Chimney.

And no Timber must be laid or placed within Three Inches of the Face or Breast, Back, Side, or Jamb of any Flue, or of any Chimney Opening, where the Substance of Brick-work or Stone-work shall be less than Eight and a Half Inches thick, nor must any Flooring Board, Batten, Ground Skirting, or other Lining or Fitting of Wood, nor any Wood Staircase, nor any thing else of Wood, be fixed or placed against or near to the Face or Breast, Back, Side, or Jamb of any Flue, Fireplace, or Chimney Opening, unless and until the Brick or Stone Work constituting the same shall have been thoroughly and efficiently rendered or pargetted with proper Mortar or Stucco, and such rendering must be in every Case in addition to Four Inches at least of solid Fire-proof Structure.

Slabs and Hearths.

And a Slab or Slabs of Brick, Tile, Stone, Slate, Marble, or other proper and sufficient Substance, at the least Twelve Inches longer than the Opening of every Chimney when finished, and at the least Eighteen Inches in front of the Arch over the same, must be laid before the Opening of every Chimney.

And in every Floor, except the lowest Floor, such Slab or Slabs must be laid wholly upon Stone or Iron Bearers, or upon Brick Trimmers; but in the lowest Floor they may be laid on a Brick Fender, or bedded on the solid Ground.

And the Hearth of every Chimney must be laid and bedded wholly on Brick or Stone, or other incombustible Substance, which must be solid for a Thickness of Nine Inches at the least, beneath the Surface of any such Hearth.

Backs.

And as to the Back of every Chimney Opening of every Building (except Backs of Chimneys in the lowest Story of Buildings of the Fourth Rate), every such Back, in the lowest Story, must be at the least Thirteen Inches thick from the Hearth to the Height of Twelve Inches above the Mantel, and in every other Story at the least Eight and a Half Inches thick up to the same relative Height.

And as to the Backs of Chimney Openings in the lowest Story of Buildings of the Fourth Rate, such Backs must be at the least Eight and a Half Inches thick to the Height of Twelve Inches at the least above the Level of the Mantel:

Provided always, that if the Chimney be built in any Wall, not being a Party Wall, then the Back of every such Chimney Opening may be Four and a Half Inches less than the several Thicknesses above described.

Chimney Openings, Back to Back.

And as to Backs of all such Chimney Openings, if Two Chimneys be built Back to Back, then the Thickness between the same must be at the least of the Thickness herein-before described for the Back of One Chimney Opening.

Angles of Flues.

And as to all Flues, in reference to the Angles thereof,—

If any Flue be built with sufficient Openings in it of not less Size than Nine Inches square, and proper close Iron Doors and Frames inserted in such Openings, so that every Part of such Flue may be swept by Machinery, then every Angle in such Flue may be of any Degree.

But if it be not so built then every such Angle must be One hundred and thirty-five Degrees at the least.

And every salient or projecting Angle within a Flue must be rounded off Four Inches at the least, and protected by a rounded Stone or Iron Bar.

Close Fires.

And as to every Oven, Furnace, Cokel, or close Fire used for the Purpose of Trade or Manufacture, it must be Six Inches at the least distant from any Party Wall, and must not be upon nor within a Distance of Eighteen Inches of any Timber or Wood-work.

And the Floor on or above which such Oven, Furnace, Cokel, or close Fire shall be built or fixed must be formed and paved under, and for a Distance of Two Feet all round the same, with Stone, Brick, Tile, or Slate, at the least Two Inches thick, or other proper incombustible and non-conducting Materials.

Chimney Shafts.

And as to Chimney Shafts or Flues,—

CAP. LXXXV.

An Act to attach certain Conditions to the Construction of future Railways authorized or to be authorized by any Act of the present or succeeding Sessions of Parliament; and for other Purposes in relation to Railways. [9th August 1844.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Concession of Powers for the Establishment of new Lines of 'Railway should be subjected to such Conditions as are herein-after contained for the Benefit 'of the Public:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if at any Time after the End of Twenty-one Years from and after the First Day of January next after the passing of any Act of the present or of any future Session of Parliament for the Construction of any new Line of Passenger Railway, whether such new Line be a Trunk, Branch, or Junction Line, and whether such new Line be constructed by a new Company incorporated for the Purpose or by any existing Company, the clear annual Profits divisible upon the subscribed and paid-up Capital Stock of the said Railway, upon the Average of the Three then last preceding Years, shall equal or exceed the Rate of Ten Pounds for every Hundred Pounds of such paid-up Capital Stock, it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, upon giving to the said Company Three Calendar Months Notice in Writing of their Intention so to do, to revise the Scale of Tolls, Fares, and Charges limited by the Act or Acts relating to the said Railway, and to fix such new Scale of Tolls, Fares, and Charges applicable to such different Classes and Kinds of Passengers, Goods, and other Traffic on such Railway, as in the Judgment of the said Lords Commissioners, assuming the same Quantities and Kinds of Traffic to continue, shall be likely to reduce the said divisible Profits to the said Rate of Ten Pounds in the Hundred: Provided always, that no such revised Scale shall take effect, unless accompanied by a Guarantee to subsist as long as any such revised Scale of Tolls, Fares, and Charges shall be in force, that the said divisible Profits, in case of any Deficiency therein, shall be annually made good to the said Rate of Ten Pounds for every Hundred Pounds of such Capital Stock: Provided also, that such revised Scale shall not be again revised or such Guarantee withdrawn, otherwise than with the Consent of the Company, for the further Period of Twenty-one Years.

If, after 21 Years from the passing of the Act for the Construction of any future Railway, the Profits shall exceed 10*l.* per Cent., the Treasury may revise the Scale of Tolls, and fix a new Scale.

Proviso.

II. And be it enacted, That whatever may be the Rate of divisible Profits on any such Railway it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners, if they shall think fit, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, at any Time after the Expiration of the said Term of Twenty-one Years, to purchase any such Railway, with all its Hereditaments, Stock, and Appurtenances, in the Name and on Behalf of Her Majesty, upon giving to the said Company Three Calendar Months Notice in Writing of their Intention, and upon Payment of a Sum equal to Twenty-five Years Purchase of the said annual divisible Profits, estimated on the Average of the Three then next preceding Years: Provided that if the average Rate of Profits for the said Three Years shall be less than the Rate of Ten Pounds in the Hundred, it shall be lawful for the Company, if they shall be of opinion that the said Rate of Twenty-five Years Purchase of the said average Profits is an inadequate Rate of Purchase of such Railway, reference being had to the Prospects thereof, to require that it shall be left to Arbitration, in case of Difference, to determine what (if any) additional Amount of Purchase Money shall be paid to the said Company: Provided also, that such Option of Purchase shall not be exercised, except with the Consent of the Company, while any such revised Scale of Tolls, Fares, and Chrrges shall be in force.

Option of Purchase of future Railways.

Proviso.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Option of Revision or Purchase shall not be applied to any Railway made or authorized to be made by any Act previous to the present Session; and that no Branch or Extension of less shan Five Miles in length of any such Line of Railway shall be taken to be a new Railway within the Provisions of this Act; and that the said Option of Purchase shall not be exercised as regards any Branch or Extension of any Railway, without including such Railway in the Purchase, in case the Proprietors thereof shall require that the same be so included.

Existing Railways not to be subjected to the Options.

IV. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Policy of Revision or Purchase should in no manner be 'prejudged by the Provisions of this Act, but should remain for the future Consideration of the Legisla-'ture, upon Grounds of general and national Policy: And whereas it is not the Intention of this Act 'that under the said Powers of Revision or Purchase, if called into use, the public Resources should 'be employed to sustain an undue Competition against any independent Company or Companies;' be it enacted, That no such Notice as herein-before mentioned, whether of Revision or Purchase, shall be given until Provision shall have been made by Parliament, by an Act or Acts to be passed in that Behalf, for authorizing the Guarantee or the Levy of the Purchase Money herein-before mentioned, as the Case may be, and for determining, subject to the Conditions herein-before mentioned, the Manner in which the said Options or either of them shall be exercised; and that no Bill for giving Powers to exercise the said Options, or either of them, shall be received in either House of Parliament unless it be recited in the Preamble to such Bill that Three Months Notice of the Intention to apply to Parliament for such Powers has been given by the said Lords Commissioners to the Company or Companies to be affected thereby.

Reservation to Parliament of the Consideration of future Policy in regard to the said Options.

V. And be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of the Period of Three Years next preceding the Period at which the Option of Revision or Purchase becomes available, full and true Accounts Accounts to be kept, and to be open to Inspection.

Accounts shall be kept of all Sums of Money received and paid on account of any Railway within the Provisions herein-before contained, (distinguishing, if the said Railway shall be a Branch Railway or one worked in common with other Railways, the Receipts, and giving an Estimate of the Expences on account of the said Railway, from those on account of the Trunk, Line, or other Railways,) by the Directors of the Company to whom such Railway belongs or by whom the same may be worked; and every such Railway Company shall once in every Half Year during the said Period of Three Years cause a half-yearly Account in abstract to be prepared, showing the total Receipt and Expenditure on account of the said Railway for the Half Year ending the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day of December respectively, or such other convenient Days as shall in each Case be directed by the said Lords Commissioners, under distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Account, duly audited and certified under the Hands of Two or more Directors of the said Railway Company, and shall send a Copy of the said Account to the said Lords Commissioners on or before the last Days of August and February respectively, or such other Days as shall in each Case be directed by the said Lords Commissioners, in each Year; and it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners, if and when they shall think fit, to appoint any proper Person or Persons to inspect the Accounts and Books of the said Company during the said Period of Three Years; and it shall be lawful for any Person so authorized, at all reasonable Times, upon producing his Authority, to examine the Books, Accounts, Vouchers, and other Documents of the Company at the principal Office or Place of Business of the Company, and to take Copies or Extracts therefrom.

Companies to provide One cheap Train each Way daily.

VI. 'And whereas it is expedient to secure to the poorer Class of Travellers the Means of travelling 'by Railway at moderate Fares, and in Carriages in which they may be protected from the Weather;' be it enacted, That on and after the several Days herein-after specified all Passenger Railway Companies which shall have been incorporated by any Act of the present Session, or which shall be hereafter incorporated, or which by any Act of the present or any future Session have obtained or shall obtain, directly or indirectly, any Extension or Amendment of the Powers conferred on them respectively by their previous Acts, or have been or shall be authorized to do any Act unauthorized by the Provisions of such previous Acts, shall, by means of One Train at the least to travel along their Railway from one End to the other of each Trunk, Branch, or Junction Line belonging to or leased by them, so long as they shall continue to carry other Passengers over such Trunk, Branch, or Junction Line, once at the least each Way on every Week Day, except Christmas Day and Good Friday (such Exception not to extend to Scotland), provide for the Conveyance of Third Class Passengers to and from the terminal and other ordinary Passenger Stations of the Railway, under the Obligations contained in their several Acts of Parliament, and with the Immunities applicable by Law to Carriers of Passengers by Railway; and also under the following Conditions; (that is to say,)

The Fare or Charge for each Third Class Passenger by such Train shall not exceed One Penny for each Mile travelled:

Each Passenger by such Train shall be allowed to take with him Half a Hundred Weight of Luggage, not being Merchandize or other Articles carried for Hire or Profit, without extra Charge; and any Excess of Luggage shall be charged by Weight, at a Rate not exceeding the lowest Rate of Charge for Passengers Luggage by other Trains:

Penalty for Non-compliance.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any Railway Company shall refuse or wilfully neglect to comply with the Provisions of this Act as to the said cheap Trains within a reasonable Time, or shall attempt to evade the Operation of such Order, such Company shall forfeit to Her Majesty a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds for every Day during which such Refusal, Neglect, or Evasion shall continue.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, except as to the Amount of Fare or Charge for each Passenger by such cheap Trains, which shall in no Case exceed the Rates herein-before in such Case provided, the Lords of the said Committee shall have a discretionary Power, upon the Application of any Railway Company, of dispensing with any of the Conditions herein-before required in regard to the Conveyance of Passengers by such cheap Trains as aforesaid, in consideration of such other Arrangements, either in regard to Speed, covering from the Weather, Seats, or other Particulars, as to the Lords of the said Committee shall appear more beneficial and convenient for the Passengers by such cheap Trains under under the Circumstances of the Case, and shall be sanctioned by them accordingly; and any Railway Company which shall conform to such other Conditions as shall be so sanctioned by the Lords of the said Committee shall not be liable to any Penalty for not observing the Conditions which shall have been so dispensed with by the Lords of the said Committee in regard to the said cheap Trains and the Passengers conveyed thereby.

When no Tax to be levied.

IX. And be it enacted, That no Tax shall be levied upon the Receipts of any Railway Company from the Conveyance of Passengers at Fares not exceeding One Penny for each Mile by any such cheap Train as aforesaid.

Where Companies run Trains on the Sunday cheap Trains to be likewise provided.

X. And be it enacted, That whenever any Railway Company subject to the herein-before mentioned Obligation of running cheap Trains shall, from and after the Days herein-before specified on which the said Obligation is to accrue, run any Train or Trains on Sundays for the Conveyance of Passengers, it shall, under the Obligations contained in its Act or Acts of Parliament, and with the Immunities applicable by Law to Carriers of Passengers by Railway, by such Train each Way, on every Sunday, as shall stop at the greatest Number of Stations, provide sufficient Carriages for the Conveyance of Third Class Passengers at the terminal and other Stations at which such Sunday Train may ordinarily stop; and the Fare or Charge for each Third Class Passenger by such Train shall not exceed One Penny for each Mile travelled.

Railway Companies to afford additional Facilities for the Transmission of the Mails. 1 & 2 Vict. c. 98.

XI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the Conveyance of the Mails by Railways, Provision was made for the Transmission of the Mails by Railway, and it is expedient that such Provision should be extended;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to require, in the Manner and subject to the Conditions as to Payment for Service performed prescribed by the said Act, that the Mails be forwarded upon any such Railway as is herein-before last mentioned at any Rate of Speed which the Inspector General of Railways for the Time being shall certify to be safe, not exceeding Twenty-seven Miles in the Hour including Stoppages; and it shall be also lawful for the Postmaster General to send any Mail Guard with Bags not exceeding the Weight of Luggage allowed to any other Passenger (or subject to the general Rules of the Company for any Excess of that Weight) by any Trains other than a Mail Train, upon the same Conditions as any other Passenger; provided that in such last-mentioned Case nothing herein or in the last-recited Act contained shall be construed to authorize the Postmaster General to require the Conversion of a regular Mail Train into an ordinary Train, or to exercise any Control over the Company in respect of any ordinary Train, nor shall the Company be responsible for the safe Custody or Delivery of any Mail Bags so sent.

Certain Companies to convey Military and Police Forces at certain Charges. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 55.

XII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Railways, and for the Conveyance of Troops, it was among other things enacted, that whenever it shall be necessary to move any of the Officers or Soldiers of Her Majesty's Forces of the Line, Ordnance Corps, Marines, Militia, or the Police Force, by any Railway, the Directors thereof shall and are hereby required to permit such Forces respectively, with their Baggage, Stores, Arms, Ammunition, and other Necessaries and Things, to be conveyed at the usual Hours of starting, at such Prices or upon such Conditions as may from Time to Time be contracted for between the Secretary at War and such Railway Companies for the Conveyance of such Forces, on the Production of a Route or Order for their Conveyance signed by the proper Authorities: And whereas it is expedient to amend such Provision in regard to the Prices and Conditions of Conveyance by any new Railway or any Railway obtaining new Powers from Parliament;' be it enacted, That all Railway Companies which have been or shall be incorporated by any Act of the present or any future Session, or which by any Act of the present or any future Session shall have obtained or shall obtain any Extension or Amendment of the Powers conferred by their previous Acts or any of them, or have been or shall be authorized to do any Act unauthorized by the Provisions of such previous Acts, shall be bound to provide such Conveyance as aforesaid for the said Military, Marine, and Police Forces, at Fares not exceeding Two-pence per Mile for each Commissioned Officer proceeding on Duty, such Officer being entitled to Conveyance in a First Class Carriage, and not exceeding One Penny for each Mile for each Soldier, Marine, or Private of the Militia or Police Force, and also for each Wife, Widow, or Child above Twelve Years of Age of a Soldier entitled by Act of Parliament or by competent Authority to be sent to their Destination at the public Expence, Children under Three Years of Age so entitled being taken free of Charge, and Children of Three Years of Age or upwards, but under Twelve Years of Age, so entitled, being taken at Half the Price of an Adult; and such Soldiers, Marines, and Privates of the Militia or Police Force, and their Wives, Widows, and Children so entitled, being conveyed in Carriages which shall be provided with Seats, with sufficient Space for the reasonable Accommodation of the Persons conveyed, and which shall be protected against the Weather; provided that every Officer conveyed shall be entitled to take with him One Hundred Weight of personal Luggage without extra Charge, and every Soldier, Marine, Private, Wife or Widow shall be entitled to take with him or her Half a Hundred Weight of personal Luggage without extra Charge, all Excess of the above Weights of personal Lnggage being paid for at the Rate of not more than One Halfpenny per Pound, and all public Baggage, Stores, Arms, Ammunition, and other Necessaries and Things, (except Gunpowder and other combustible Matters, which the Company shall only be bound to convey at such Prices and upon such Conditions as may be from Time to Time contracted for between the Secretary at War and the Company,) shall be conveyed at Charges not exceeding Two-pence per Ton per Mile, the Assistance of the Military or other Forces being given in loading and unloading such Goods.

Companies to allow Lines of Electrical Telegraph to be established.

XIII. 'And whereas Electrical Telegraphs have been established on certain Railways, and may be 'more extensively established hereafter, and it is expedient to provide for their due Regulation;' be it enacted, That every Railway Company, on being required so to do by the Lords of the said Committee, shall be bound to allow any Person or Persons authorized by the Lords of the said Committee, with Servants and Workmen, at all reasonable Times to enter into or upon their Lands, and to establish and lay down upon such Lands adjoining the Line of such Railway a Line of Electrical Telegraph for Her Majesty's Service, and to give to him and them every reasonable Facility for laying down the same, and for using the same for the Purpose of receiving and sending Messages on Her Majesty's Service, subject to such reasonable Remuneration to the Company as may be agreed upon between the Company and the Lords of the said Committee, or in case of Disagreement as may be settled by Arbitration: Provided always, that, subject to a prior Right of Use thereof for the Purposes of Her Majesty, such Telegraph may be used by the Company for the Purposes of the Railway, upon such Terms as may be agreed upon between the Parties, or, in the event of Difference, as may be settled by Arbitration.

Electrical Telegraph established by private Parties to be open to the Public.

XIV. And be it enacted, That where a Line of Electrical Telegraph shall have been established upon any Railway by the Company to whom such Railway belongs, or by any Company, Partnership, Person or Persons, otherwise than exclusively for Her Majesty's Service, or exclusively for the Purposes of the Railway, or jointly for both, the Use of such Electrical Telegraph, for the Purpose of receiving and sending Messages, shall, subject to the prior Right of Use thereof for the Service of Her Majesty and for the Purposes of the Company, and subject also to such equal Charges and to such reasonable Regulations as may be from Time to Time made by the said Railway Company, be open for the sending and receiving of Messages by all Persons alike, without Favour or Preference.

Appointment of Inspectors by Board of Trade. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 97.

XV. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An 'Act to regulate Railways, Power is given to the Lords of the said Committee to appoint any proper 'Person or Persons to inspect any Railway, and the Stations, Works, and Buildings, and the Engines 'and Carriages belonging thereto; and in order to carry the Provisions of this Act into execution it is 'expedient that the said Power be extended;' be it enacted, That the said Power given to the Lords of the said Committee of appointing proper Persons to inspect Railways shall extend to authorize the Appointment by the Lords of the said Committee of any proper Person or Persons, for such Purposes of Inspection as are by the said Act authorized, and also for the Purpose of enabling the Lords of the said Committee to carry the Provisions of this and of the said Act and of any general Act relating to Railways into execution; and that so much of the last-recited Act as provides that no Person shall be eligible to the Appointment as Inspector who shall, within One Year of his Appointment, have been a Director, or have held any Office of Trust or Profit under any Railway Company, shall be repealed: Provided always, that no Person to be appointed as aforesaid shall exercise any Powers of Interference in the Affairs of the Company.

Repealing Provision of 3 & 4 Vict. c. 97.

XVI. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An 'Act for regulating Railways, it is among other things enacted, that whenever it shall appear to the 'Lords of the said Committee that any of the Provisions of the several Acts of Parliament regulating any 'Railway Companies, or the Provisions of that Act, have not been complied with on the Part of any of 'the said Companies or any of their Officers, and that it would be for the public Advantage that the due 'Performance of the same should be enforced, the Lords of the said Committee shall certify the same to 'Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, or to the Lord Advocate for Scotland, as the 'Case may require; and thereupon the said Attorney General or Lord Advocate shall, by Information, 'or by Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit at Law or in Equity, or other legal Proceeding (as the Case may 'require), proceed to recover such Penalties and Forfeitures, or otherwise to enforce the due Performance 'of the said Provisions, by such Means as any Person aggrieved by such Non-compliance, or otherwise 'authorized to sue for such Penalties, might employ under the Provisions of the said Acts; provided 'always, that no such Certificate as aforesaid shall be given by the Lords of the said Committee until Twenty-one Days after they shall have given Notice of their Intention to give the same to the Company 'against or in relation to whom they shall intend to give the same: And whereas it is expedient that 'more effectual Provision should be made, not only for enforcing a Compliance on the Part of Railway 'Companies with the Provisions of their Acts, but also for restraining Railway Companies from per-'forming Acts unauthorized by such Provisions;' be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as is herein-before recited shall be repealed.

If Railway Companies contravene or exceed the Provisions of their Acts, or of any general Act, the Board of Trade to certify the same to the Attorney General, &c., who shall proceed against them.

XVII. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the Lords of the said Committee that any of the Provisions of the several Acts of Parliament regulating any Railway Company, or the Provisions of this Act or of any general Act relating to Railways, have not been complied with on the Part of any Railway Company or any of its Officers, or that any Railway Company has acted or is acting in a Manner unauthorized by the Provisions of the Act or Acts of Parliament relating to such Railway, or in excess of the Powers given and Objects defined by the said Act or Acts, and it shall also appear to the Lords of the said Committee that it would be for the public Advantage that the Company should be restrained from so acting, the Lords of the said Committee shall certify the same to Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, or to the Lord Advocate for Scotland, as the Case may require; and thereupon the said Attorney General or Lord Advocate shall, in case such Default of the Railway Company shall consist of Non-compliance with the Provisions of the Act or Acts relating thereto or of this Act, or of any general Act relating to Railways, proceed by Information, or by Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit at Law or in Equity, or other legal Proceeding, as the Case may require, to recover such

Penalties

Penalties and Forfeitures, or otherwise to enforce the due Performance of the said Provisions, by such Means as any Person aggrieved by such Non-compliance, or otherwise authorized to sue for such Penalties, might employ under the Provisions of the said Acts; and in case the Default of the Railway Company shall consist in the Commission of some Act or Acts unauthorized by Law, then the said Attorney General or Lord Advocate, upon receiving such Certificate as aforesaid, shall proceed by Suit in Equity, or such other legal Proceeding as the Nature of the Case may require, to obtain an Injunction or Order (which the Judge in Equity or other Judge to whom the Application is made shall be authorized and required to grant, if he shall be of opinion that the Act or Acts of the Railway Company complained of is or are not authorized by Law,) to restrain the Company from acting in such illegal Manner, or to give such other Relief as the Nature of the Case may require.

Notice to be given to the Company, and Prosecutions to be under the Sanction of the Board of Trade, and within One Year after the Offence.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Certificate as aforesaid shall be given by the Lords of the said Committee until Twenty-one Days after they shall have given Notice to the Company against or in relation to whom they shall intend to give such Certificate of their Intention to give such Certificate; and that no legal Proceedings shall be commenced under the Authority of the Lords of the said Committee against any Railway Company for any Offence against any of the several Acts relating to Railways or this Act, or any general Acts relating to Railways, except upon such Certificate of the Lords of the said Committee as aforesaid, and within One Year after such Offence shall have been committed.

Issue of Loan Notes and other illegal Securities by Railway Companies prohibited.

XIX. 'And whereas many Railway Companies have borrowed Money in a Manner unauthorized by 'their Acts of Incorporation or other Acts of Parliament relating to the said Companies, upon the 'Security of Loan Notes or other Instruments purporting to give a Security for the Repayment of the 'Principal Sums borrowed at certain Dates, and for the Payment of Interest thereon in the meantime: 'And whereas such Loan Notes or other Securities issued otherwise than under the Provision of 'some Act or Acts of Parliament have no legal Validity, and it is expedient that the Issue of such 'illegal Securities should be stopped; but such Loan Notes or other Securities having been issued and 'received in good Faith as between the Borrower and Lender, and for the most part for the lawful 'Purposes of the Undertaking, and in ignorance of their legal Invalidity, it is expedient to confirm such 'as have been already issued;' be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act any Railway Company issuing any Loan Note or other negotiable or assignable Instrument purporting to bind the Company as a legal Security for Money advanced to the said Railway Company otherwise than under the Provisions of some Act or Acts of Parliament authorizing the said Railway Company to raise such Money and to issue such Security, shall for every such Offence forfeit to Her Majesty a Sum equal to the Sum for which such Loan Note or other Instrument purports to be such Security: Provided always, that any Company may renew any such Loan Note or other Instrument issued by them prior to the passing of this Act for any Period or Periods not exceeding Five Years from the passing of this Act.

Loan Notes already issued may be renewed.

Loan Notes already issued to be paid when due.

XX. And be it enacted, That where any Railway Company, before the Twelfth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, shall have issued or contracted to issue any such Loan Notes or other unauthorized Instruments, the Company may and shall pay off such Loan Notes or other Instruments as the same may fall due, subject as herein-before provided; and until the same shall be so paid off the said Loan Notes or other Instruments shall entitle the Holders thereof to the Payment by the Company of the Principal Sum and Interest thereby agreed to be paid.

Register of Loan Notes.

XXI. And be it enacted, That a Register of all such Loan Notes or other Instruments shall be kept by the Secretary; and such Register shall be open, without Fee or Reward, at all reasonable Times, to the Inspection of any Shareholder or Auditor of the Undertaking, and of every Person interested in any such Loan Note or other Instrument desirous of inspecting the same.
